The Other Sylvia Plath Tracy Brain, 2014-07-22 Despite being widely studied on both undergraduate and postgraduate courses the writing of Sylvia Plath has been relatively neglected in relation to the attention given to her life and what drove her to suicide Tracy Brain aims to remedy this by introducing completely new approaches to Plath's writing taking the studies away from the familiar concentration to reveal that Plath as a writer was concerned with a much wider range of important cultural and political topics Unlike most of the existing literary criticism it shifts the focus away from biographical readings and encompasses the full range of Plath's poetry prose journals and letters using a variety of critical methods

Far Eastern Overexposure Paul Tweiten, 2011-11 On the brink of being divorced feeling like a cast aside middle aged man American forestry professional Paul Tweiten accepts a job that casts him into anything but the familiar In the summer of 1995 he leaves the United States to manage a remote timber harvest organization in Siziman Bay in the Russian Far East In this novel Tweiten narrates the story of his experiences traveling to a foreign country not speaking the language and not knowing what to expect Life in the isolated camp is nothing like he could imagine Far Eastern Overexposure shows how he overcame the challenges of being thrown into both an unfamiliar culture and lifestyle Meeting colorful Russian characters and gaining lifelong friends Tweiten transitions from being completely lost and confused to that of understanding how to become a successful businessman in Russia Far Eastern Overexposure mixes business with pleasure while providing colorful insight into the Russian country and culture Technology, Globalization, and Sustainable Development Nicholas A Ashford, Ralph P Hall, 2018-08-06 Technology Globalization and Sustainable Development offers a unified transdisciplinary approach for transforming the industrial state in order to promote sustainable development The authors present a deep analysis of the ways that industrial states both developed and developing are currently unsustainable and how economic and social welfare are related to the environment to public health and safety and to earning capacity and meaningful and rewarding employment The authors offer multipurpose solutions to the sustainability challenge that integrate industrial development employment technology environment national and international law trade finance and public and worker health and safety The authors present a compelling wake up call that warns of the collision course set between the current paths of continued growth and inevitable unsustainability in the world today Offering clear examples and real solutions this textbook illustrates how the driving forces that are currently promoting unsustainability can be refocused and redesigned to reverse course and improve the state of the world This book is essential reading for those teaching and studying sustainable development and the critical roles of the economy employment and the environment The Dangers of Overexposure to X-radiation in Dental Practice Lee Roy Carl Winters, 1952 Literary Advertising and the Shaping of British Romanticism Nicholas Mason, 2013-10 Important revisions to the history of advertising and its connection to Romantic era literature Outstanding Academic Title Choice Literary Advertising and the Shaping of British Romanticism investigates the entwined histories of the advertising industry and the gradual commodification of literature over the course of the Romantic Century 1750 1850 In this engaging and detailed study Nicholas Mason argues that the seemingly antagonistic arenas of marketing and literature share a common genealogy and in many instances even a symbiotic relationship Drawing from archival materials such as publishers account books merchants trade cards and authors letters Mason traces the beginnings of many familiar modern advertising methods including product placement limited time offers and journalistic puffery to the British book trade during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Until now Romantic scholars have not fully recognized advertising s cultural significance or the importance of this period in the origins of modern advertising Mason explores Lord Byron s appropriation of branding Letitia Elizabeth Landon s experiments in visual marketing and late Romantic debates over advertising s claim to be a new branch of the literary arts Mason uses the antics of Romantic era advertising to illustrate the profound implications of commercial modernity both in economic practices governing the book trade and more broadly in the development of the modern idea of literature Photography , 1895 HEAT Series 3 Number 1 Alexandra Christie, 2022-02-15 HEAT

Giramondo s celebrated literary journal relaunches in a third series An edgy and enormously influential literary magazine The Australian A really lively magazine like HEAT can create the occasion for new writing as well as being an outlet for it a wish on the part of writers to write up to its standard It makes things happen It creates its own scene David Malouf First published in 1996 HEAT is a literary journal dedicated to publishing Australian and overseas writers of the highest quality It returns after a decade long hiatus with a renewed commitment to challenge convention and spark international exchange At the core of HEAT is a desire to bring together writing that is powerful eccentric and skilful Rather than being guided by a subject or themes the journal is drawn to depth of thought singularity of voice curiosity and above all writing that speaks to the urgency and dynamism inherent in the word heat itself HEAT s third series is edited by Alexandra Christie and designed by award winning designer Jenny Grigg Christie is supported by a distinguished editorial advisory board alongside Giramondo s founders Ivor Indyk and Evelyn Juers and associate publisher Nick Tapper HEAT will continue to feature new and familiar voices with the focus thrown sharply on the individual writers featured in each issue Commencing in February it will appear in a new smaller and more intimate format on a bimonthly schedule with six issues per year HEAT 3 1 will include short stories essays and poetry from writers including Sarah Holland Batt Mireille Juchau Cristina Rivera Garza and Josephine Rowe HEAT s relaunch in print will be supported by the digitisation of the journal s archive allowing a new generation of readers to access contributions to past issues Fifteen issues were published in the first series of HEAT from 1996 2000 The second series followed with twenty four issues published between 2001 and 2011 Among the contributors to the first two series were Murray Bail John Berger Roberto Bola o Brian Castro Inga Clendinnen Gao Xingjian Helen Garner Lisa Gorton Jorie Graham Gail Jones Kapka Kassabova Etgar Keret Deborah Levy David Malouf Herta M ller Gerald Murnane Les Murray Dorothy Porter Gig Ryan Charles Simic and Alexis Wright NASA Technical Memorandum ,1974

Radiation Ilya Obodovskiy,2019-03-09 The author is ready to assert that practically none of the readers of this book will ever happen to deal with large doses of radiation But the author without a shadow of a doubt claims that any readers of this book regardless of gender age financial situation type of professional activity and habits are actually exposed to low doses of radiation throughout their life This book is devoted to the effect of small doses on the body To understand the basic effects of radiation on humans the book contains the necessary information from an atomic molecular and nuclear physics as well as from biochemistry and biology Special attention is paid to the issues that are either not considered or discussed very briefly in existing literature Examples include the ionization of inner atomic shells that play an essential role in radiological processes and the questions of transformation of the energy of ionizing radiation in matter The benefits of ionizing radiation to mankind is reflected in a wide range of radiation technologies used in science industry agriculture culture art forensics and what is the most important application medicine Radiation Fundamentals Applications Risks and Safety provides information on the use of radiation in modern life its usefulness and indispensability Experiments on the effects of small doses on bacteria fungi algae insects plants and animals are described Human medical experiments are inhuman and ethically flawed However during the familiarity of mankind with ionizing radiation a large number of population groups were subject to accumulation exposed to radiation at doses of small but exceeding the natural background radiation This book analyzes existing real life radiation results from survivors of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Chernobyl and Fukushima and examines studies of radiation effect on patients radiologists crews of long distant flights and astronauts on miners of uranium copies on workers of nuclear industry and on militaries exposed to ionizing radiation on a professional basis and on the population of the various countries receiving environmental exposure The author hopes that this book can mitigate the impact of radiation phobia which prevails in the public consciousness over the last half century Explores the science of radiation and the effects of radiation technologies and biological processes Analyzes the elementary processes of ionization and excitation Summarizes information about inner shells ionization and its impact on matter and biological structures Discusses quantum concepts in biology and clarifies the importance of epigenetics in radiological processes Includes case studies focusing on humans irradiated by low doses of radiation and its effects Edith Wharton in Context Laura Rattray,2012-10-08 Edith Wharton was one of America s most popular and prolific writers becoming the first woman to win the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction in 1921 In a publishing career spanning seven decades Wharton lived and wrote through a period of tremendous social cultural and historical change Bringing together a team of international scholars this volume provides the first substantial text dedicated to the various contexts that frame Wharton s remarkable career Each essay offers a clearly argued and lucid assessment of Wharton s work as it relates to seven key areas life and works critical receptions book and publishing history arts and aesthetics social designs time and place and literary milieu These sections provide a broad and accessible resource for students coming to Wharton for the first time while offering scholars new critical insights DHEW Publication ,1978 Skylab Earth Resources Data Catalog Lyndon B.
