The Oxford History of Classical Reception in English Literature David Hopkins, Charles Martindale, Norman Vance, Rita Copeland, Patrick Cheney, Philip R. Hardie, Jennifer Wallace, 2012 The Oxford History of Classical Reception OHCREL is designed to offer a comprehensive investigation of the numerous and diverse ways in which literary texts of the classical world have stimulated responses and refashioning by English writers Covering the full range of English literature from the early Middle Ages to the present day OHCREL both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge new research employing an international team of expert contributors for each of the five volumes OHCREL endeavours to interrogate rather than inertly reiterate conventional assumptions about literary periods the processes of canon formation and the relations between literary and non literary discourse It conceives of reception as a complex process of dialogic

exchange and rather than offering large cultural generalizations it engages in close critical analysis of literary texts It explores in detail the ways in which English writers engagement with classical literature casts as much light on the classical originals as it does on the English writers own cultural context This second volume and third to appear in the series covers the years 1558 1660 and explores the reception of the ancient genres and authors in English Renaissance literature engaging with the major and many of the minor writers of the period including Shakespeare Marlowe Spenser and Jonson Separate chapters examine the Renaissance institutions and contexts which shape the reception of antiquity and an annotated bibliography provides substantial material for further reading reviewing the Hudson Review's history of publishing poetry in translation since 1948 the editors have compiled a collection that highlights the work of major American and English poets most of whom are prominent in their own right who for the last half century have made accessible through their translations the work of their international colleagues Poets Translate Poets contains translations of classical Latin and Greek poetry classical Chinese and medieval East Asian verse canonical French German and Italian writers twentieth century Latin American poetry and a sampling of works from Persian South Asian South East Asian Scandinavian and Eastern European poets The Odeon Daniel Tobin, 2025-08-11 The Odeon a new volume of essays by the celebrated poet and critic Daniel Tobin takes its title from the classical Greek and Roman buildings designed for the presentation of musical and poetic compositions Organized around the question of sensibility with its various social philosophical and aesthetic connotations the collection presents a sequence of related essays exploring both resonances and dissonances in the traditions of modern and contemporary poetry Although Tobin surveys a broad spectrum of works ranging from John Donne and Emily Dickinson to writers from the twenty first century such as Mark Doty Louise Glück and Carl Phillips his emphasis remains on details of poetic practice technique metaphysical outlook and artistic aspiration What most informs these essays is Tobin's own practice as a poet his own sensibility which is at once eclectic and yet very much calibrated to matters of what one theologian termed ultimate concern The Odeon offers an incisive foray into the state of the art of poetry in our time The Creation of Eve and Renaissance Naturalism Jack M. Greenstein, 2016-08-23 This book traces how four early Renaissance masters represented the Creation of Eve which showed woman rising weightlessly from Adam's side at God's command Galileo's Reading Crystal Hall, 2013-12-12 Galileo 1564-1642 incorporated throughout his work the language of battle the rhetoric of the epic and the structure of romance as a means to elicit emotional responses from his readers against his opponents By turning to the literary as a field for creating knowledge Galileo delineated a textual space for establishing and validating the identity of the new idealized philosopher Galileo's Reading places Galileo in the complete intellectual and academic world in which he operated bringing together for example debates over the nature of floating bodies and Ludovico Ariosto's Orlando furioso disputes on comets and the literary criticism of Don Quixote mathematical demonstrations of material strength and Dante's voyage through the afterlife and the parallels of his feisty note taking practices with popular comedy of the period The Wild That Attracts Us ShaunAnne Tangney, 2015-06-15 The first collection in twenty years of essays on Robinson Jeffers one of the great American poets of the twentieth century this work signals the sea change in Jeffers scholarship as well as the increasing breadth and depth of criticism of the literature of the American West The essays assembled here highlight issues and theories critical to Jeffers studies among them the advance of ecocriticism the reimagining of regionalism as place studies the continuing development of cultural studies and the new historicism the increasingly poignant vector of science and literature the new formalism particularly as it pertains to narrative verse and the glaring omission of feminist analysis in Jeffers scholarship Jeffers has always appealed to a wider audience than many twentieth century poets and this book will speak to that general readership as well as to scholars and students
