Oswald Doing Things:

Oswald's Tale Norman Mailer, 2007-01-23 In perhaps his most important literary feat Norman Mailer fashions an unprecedented portrait of one of the great villains and enigmas in United States history Here is Lee Harvey Oswald his family background troubled marriage controversial journey to Russia and return to an America waiting for him like an angry relative whose eyes glare in the heat Based on KGB and FBI transcripts government reports letters and diaries and Mailer's own international research this is an epic account of a man whose cunning duplicity and self invention were both at home in and at odds with the country he forever altered Praise for Oswald's Tale America's largest mystery has found its greatest interpreter The Washington Post Book World Mailer is fierce courageous and reckless and nearly everything he writes has sections of headlong brilliance From the American master conjurer of dark and swirling purpose a moving reflection Robert Stone The New York Review of Books A narrative of tremendous energy and panache the author at the top of his form Christopher Hitchens Financial Times The performance of an author relishing the force and reach of his own acuity Martin Amis The Sunday Times London Praise for Norman Mailer Norman Mailer loomed over American letters longer and larger than any other writer of his generation The New York Times A writer of the greatest and most reckless talent The New Yorker Mailer is indispensable an American treasure The Washington Post A devastatingly alive and original creative mind Life Mailer is fierce courageous and reckless and nearly everything he writes has sections of headlong brilliance The New York Review of Books The largest mind and imagination in modern American literature Unlike just about every American writer since Henry James Mailer has managed to grow and become richer in wisdom with each new book Chicago Tribune Mailer is a master of his craft His language carries you through the story like a leaf on a stream The Cincinnati Post Joan

Seçil ERKOÇ IQBAL, 2025-09-01 Drawing on recent posthumanist theories that promote a non anthropocentric perspective this study examines the works of contemporary British poets Mario Petrucci and Alice Oswald It is argued that their poetry can be described as posthuman poetry which envisions posthuman spaces of becoming where human and nonhuman worlds coexist on a non hierarchical basis Petrucci's engagement with ecocritical crises in the Anthropocene underscores the limits of human agency and it foregrounds destructive impact of human actions on the ecosystem In a posthuman context therefore Petrucci problematises the human nonhuman binary by representing the erosion of the anthropocentric worldview in the face of environmental crises such as deforestation global warming and the Chernobyl nuclear disaster in Bosco 1999 Heavy Water A Poem for Chernobyl 2004 and Half Life Poems for Chernobyl 2004 In these collections challenging the perception of nonhuman matter as passive Petrucci emphasises the agency of trees and radioactive particles Similarly Alice Oswald moves the reader beyond the human centred treatment of the natural world Rejecting human exceptionalism Oswald's Dart 2002

presents a polyphonic meshwork where the voices of alternating human speakers and the River Dart interweave within a posthuman space Representing the intersubjective and dialogic exchanges between the human and nonhuman inhabitants of the Severn Estuary and the lunar cycle Oswald's A Sleepwalk on the Severn 2009 further problematises the subject object binary by creating a posthuman space of becoming grounded in a communicative framework Hence bringing Petrucci and Oswald together this study draws attention to trans corporeal and polyphonic entanglements of human nonhuman subject object and self other non binaries and it aims to show how poetry as a literary medium can contribute to questioning and transforming the anthropocentric vision of humankind in the contemporary world
