

Story Outline

Directions: In each section below, make a list of ideas to answer each question. Then, as a group, decide which elements will fit together to make the strongest story. Circle the elements you want to include in the story and use this outline as a guide when writing the story. Remember to use respectful language about people with disabilities when developing your story.

Plot

What is the plot of your story?

- What situation do the characters find themselves in?
- What type of problem or conflict needs to be resolved?
- How does the presence of one or more characters with disabilities influence the plot?

Characters

Who are the characters?

- Identify the primary and secondary characters.
- Describe the important hidden and obvious attributes, skills and traits for each character.
