Schooling and Difference in Africa George Jerry Sefa Dei,Riyad Ahmed

Shahjahan,Sharon Eblaghie Bahador,Alireza Asgharzadeh,2006-01-01 Since the 1950s when most African countries gained political independence schooling has presented very difficult challenges In the discussion of these challenges however the issue of diversity has received relatively little attention Schooling and Difference in Africa aims to understand how differences such as ethnicity class gender language religion and disability play out in African schools systems and more specifically in Ghana Together George J Sefa Dei Alireza Asgharzadeh Sharon Eblaghie Bahador and Riyad Ahmed Shahjahan promote educational inclusion in the context of African schooling The aspects of diversity explored in this study include minority majority relations race ethnicity gender language class religion and physical dis ability The authors build their analyses of these issues around a series of interviews which project a perspective that policy makers and administrators rarely seek out By studying the challenges of inclusive education in Ghana and further by making comparisons with the Canadian context this volume seeks to shed light on the ongoing struggle for an empowering school system in Africa and elsewhere

Challenging Inclusive Education Policy and Practice in Africa ,2018-11-26 It is a fundamental right for all children to be given access to quality education to ensure they reach their full potential as individuals a right which is reflected in international law in Article 26 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and supported by the Education for All Agenda 1990 and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities and Optional Protocol 2006 Nation states across Africa have signed up to these protocols and remain committed to ensuring education for all children The progress globally however in the past 25 years including in Africa has been slow UNESCO 2015 Questions remain on why this is so and what can be done about it This book brings together researchers education policy makers and academics from the African community What is unique about this text is that it includes local insights narrated and critiqued by local professionals This book presents a wide range of African countries across the continent to provide a critical overview of the key issues affecting developments It questions the origins of ideas and definitions around inclusive education and the impact it has made on policy and ultimately practice within local socio cultural and economic communities both urban and rural It highlights positive developments as well as challenges and provides a deep understanding of why the process of implementing inclusive education is so complex in the African continent It provides an understanding of what is needed to develop a more sustainable model of inclusive education across the continent and within specific countries The Wiley Handbook of Diversity in Special Education Marie Tejero Hughes, Elizabeth Talbott, 2017-02-21 The Wiley Handbook of Diversity in Special Education is a state of the art reference showcasing cutting edge special education research with a focus on children and youth with disabilities from diverse cultural ethnic linguistic and economic backgrounds Cutting edge special education research focusing on children and youth with disabilities from diverse cultural ethnic linguistic and economic backgrounds An authoritative contribution to the field this work charts a new path to effective interventions and sets an agenda for future research Addresses disabilities from an international perspective Autism Mary Clasquin-Johnson, Dikeledi Mahlo, Michel Clasquin-Johnson, 2023-02-10 This book is written at a time of a paradigm shift in the African continent where dependence on western epistemologies and ontologies are giving way to African indigenous knowledge systems Africa has been an importer of knowledge from the west since time immemorial and this book contributes to the body of knowledge on autism spectrum disorder ASD from the African perspective As a result decoloniality and Inclusive Education have gained traction within the academic discourse with University of South Africa UNISA hosting decoloniality annual conference and a summer school to stimulate academic discussions and debates with a focus on African indigenous knowledge systems and theoretical lenses as opposed to the western epistemologies The book also demystifies some of the misconceptions that children with ASD are a curse and punishment from God or gods Among others Ubuntu seems to be the dominant theoretical framework underpinning some of the research studies reported in this book

Handbook of Research on Inclusive and Accessible Education Maguvhe, Mbulaheni Obert, Mpya, Nwacoye Gladness, Sadiki, Marubini Christinah, 2024-02-16 In the vast expanse of education a pervasive issue remains in the marginalization and lack of visibility of individuals with disabilities Despite a strong desire for inclusivity recent research suggests that fewer than 5% of children with disabilities in 51 countries across sub Saharan Africa and South Asia are enrolled in primary school This exclusion is not solely in enrollment numbers even those who manage to attend face learning environments ill equipped to adapt to their needs leading to further isolation Girls with disabilities in particular endure heightened vulnerability to abuse reflecting a systemic failure to provide an environment that fosters equality dignity and respect for all The Handbook of Research on Inclusive and Accessible Education emerges as an inspiration for change providing a profound solution to the persistent issue of exclusion The book encapsulates a collective effort to reimagine education It advocates for a paradigm shift moving away from the confinement of special schools and towards inclusive mainstream settings By addressing controversies sharing successes and outlining prospects the book serves as a comprehensive guide for special school governing bodies curriculum advisors university lecturers and all stakeholders committed to reshaping education

Promoting equality and non-discrimination for persons with disabilities Waddington, Lisa, Broderick, Andrea, 2017-03-27 Equality and non discrimination A core principle of all human rights and fundamental freedoms Ensuring equal opportunities for persons with disabilities is an important facilitator of participation and inclusion in society Both the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities UNCRPD and the Council of Europe Disability Strategy 2017 2023 address equality and equalisation of opportunities for persons with disabilities Article 5 of the UNCRPD requires States to adopt positive measures aimed at ensuring equality across the substantive rights in the Convention The Council of Europe Disability Strategy aims at guiding and supporting the activities of Council of Europe member States in their implementation of the UNCRPD and Council of Europe standards regarding disability and similarly addresses equality and non discrimination The overall goal of this study is to analyse the obligations contained in the UNCRPD regarding equality and non discrimination and to provide examples of good national practices regarding equality and non discrimination

The Irish Yearbook of International Law, Volume 9, 2014 Fiona de Londras, Siobhán Mullally, 2017-02-09 The Irish Yearbook of International Law IYIL supports research into Ireland's practice in international affairs and foreign policy filling a gap in existing legal scholarship and assisting in the dissemination of Irish thinking and practice on matters of international law On an annual basis the Yearbook presents peer reviewed academic articles and book reviews on general issues of international law Designated correspondents provide reports on international law developments in Ireland Irish practice in international bodies Ireland and the Law of the Sea and the law of the European Union as relevant to developments in Ireland In addition the Yearbook reproduces key documents that reflect Irish practice on contemporary issues of international law Publication of The Irish Yearbook of International Law makes Irish practice and opinio juris more readily available to governments academics and international bodies when determining the content of international law In providing a forum for the documentation and analysis of North South relations the Yearbook also makes an important contribution to post conflict and transitional justice studies internationally As a matter of editorial policy the Yearbook seeks to promote a multilateral approach to international affairs reflecting and reinforcing Ireland's long standing commitment to multilateralism as a core element of foreign policy The ninth volume of The Irish Yearbook of International Law engages with contemporary issues in international law raising questions both as to the conceptual underpinnings of international law in relation to the Responsibility to Protect doctrine and state practice in fields such as Law of the Sea and belligerent occupation prosecution of war crimes in domestic courts and the evolving field of international disability law
