Christianity and Controversies over Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa Ezra Chitando, Adriaan van Klinken, 2016-05-12 Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them

Complementing the companion volume Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa this book investigates Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub Saharan Africa The contributors present case studies from various African countries from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda focusing on Pentecostal Catholic and mainline Protestant churches They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa

The African Diaspora and the Study of Religion T. Trost, 2007-12-25 This book focuses on the location of the religious heritage of Africa within the academic study of religion including indigenous African religions African Christianities African American forms of Islam the religions of African Americans Afro Caribbean religions and Afro Brazilian religions

Transnational Religious Spaces Philip Clart, Adam Jones, 2020-07-06 This volume bringing together work by scholars from Europe East Asia North America and West Africa investigates transnational religious spaces in a comparative manner by juxtaposing East Asian and African examples It highlights flows of ideas actors and organizations out of into or within a given continental space These flows are patterned mainly by colonialism or migration The book also examines cases where the transnational space in question encompasses both East Asia and Africa notably in the development of Japanese new religions in Africa Most of the studies are located in the present a few go back to the late nineteenth century The volume is rounded off by Thomas Tweed's systematic reflections on categories for the study of transnationalism his chapter Flows and Dams critically weighs the metaphorical language we use to think speak and write about transnational religious spaces

The Redeemed Christian Church of God, 1998 The African Christian Diaspora Afe Adogame, 2013-04-24 The last three decades have witnessed a rapid proliferation of African Christian communities particularly in Europe and North American diaspora thus resulting in the remapping of old religious landscapes This migratory trend and development bring to the fore the crucial role functions and import of religious symbolic systems in new geo cultural contexts The trans national linkages between African led churches in the countries of origin Africa and the host societies are assuming increasing importance for African immigrants The links and networks that are established and maintained between these contexts are of immense religious cultural economic political and social importance This suggests how African Christianities can be understood within processes of religious transnationalism and African modernity Based on extensive religious ethnography undertaken by the author among African Christian communities in Europe the USA and Africa in the last 17 years this book maps and describes the incipience and consolidation of new brands of African Christianities in diaspora The book demonstrates how African Christianities are negotiating and assimilating notions of the global while maintaining their local identities Digging for Gold Emmanuel Elendu, 2015-05-29 Digging for Gold comes to fill the need to teach sound and balanced biblical truths Emmanuel Elendu draws from his years in ministry and professional practices to lead groups and training classes Elendu uses the question model in his study designs The book deals with topical and contemporary issues to address simple but practical Christian living Digging for Gold serves as a resource for Christian workers The stories and styles of presentation meet students at a crossroads while leading to the truth and the life When you invest in stocks and bonds you expect a good return on investment with promising market dynamics As you study with Digging for Gold the return on your investment will be worth something more than gold Fighting Your Way to Victory Taiwo Olusegun Ayeni, 2006-03-26 This is the first book in the series of work Prayer School Manuals originally titled The gates of Hell shall not prevail Parts I II It is titled Fighting Your Way To Victory principles of victory over stubborn problems and it deals with the revival of prayer life and the need to rise up and engage in spiritual warfare in order to overcome unnecessary sufferings It reveals explicitly the reality of the life of an average Christian in an urban center where stress is the hallmark of existence

Prayers from the Heart Francis K. F. Iselowo, 2011-02-07 Public Righteousness Abimbola A. Adelakun, 2023-05-25 Public Righteousness The Performative Ethics of Human Flourishing is driven by the idea that part of what manifests as a disorderly display of virtue in public culture is underlined by the desire to see a more righteous society and an expression of the will to enact such an ideal world into reality This book re structures the ferment of such public displays and fashions an ethic that overturns the ostentatious signals of self righteousness and the fierce contest of animating visions This book engages the work of social ethicist Nimi Wariboko to explore an idea of public righteousness In place of smug superiority and phony pieties the performative ethics that inaugurate this public righteousness offer an intellectual and moral competence that establishes rectitude and culminates in human flourishing
