

Reflection Paper - God is Love

I discovered that God is love. God is the root of everything good. God's love is at the heart of every Christian's faith. God loves no matter what. God's love always was and always will be. God showed us how much God loved us by sending us God's only son, Jesus, to save us. God also showed his love through creation. Everything God created is good. God gave us the power and free will to do whatever we want with God's gifts. We as Christians believe that God's love is everlasting and unfailing. No matter what we do, the only way a person can be separated from God's love is through our own choice. God lets us decide on our own, whether we accept his teachings.

I am still wondering how, if God made everything good, we still have suffering, poverty and death in our world today. I try to logically figure out what God must be planning for everybody in his or her life. I understand that we all have some mission to complete before we die. However, what that mission may be, is what puzzles me. Some of my close friends family members have died lately and through their deaths I have come to have many questions. Why does God take young teenagers before 90-year-old patients lying in hospitals? If God loves everyone equally then why does God choose some people to suffer more than others? So many people suffer in this world today, while others have very good lives. This puzzles me. However, I truly believe that God does not choose for people to suffer. Because God is love and we have free will, God is not completely in charge of what happens. I know that God must have a plan for all of us and everything happens for a reason. However sometimes I still wonder what God is thinking.

I am challenged to accept all of God's teachings even if I do not understand them. I need to ask more personal questions and through them seek to find new answers. I have learned to question my faith more, after realizing it is all right to. However, I still need to try to work things through and rely on what I have been taught. I have a hard time trying to figure out what God has planned for me, but my faith challenges me to trust God's teachings and have faith in those around me.

Reflection Paper God:

Theological Reflection and Education for Ministry John E. Paver, 2016-02-17 A major and continuing problem for theological education and the practice of Christian ministry is how to best achieve a genuine integration between theory and practice theology and experience The key claim of this book is that theological reflection beginning with experience is a method of integration and that pastoral supervision is a vehicle for theological reflection In establishing this claim John Paver demonstrates that the model and method have potential to be a catalyst for reform within theological colleges and seminaries Three different theological reflection models are developed and critiqued in this book and their capacity to be developed in particular contexts is explored This book does not stop at ministry cultural and personal integration but is bold enough to make recommendations for structural integration within the theological institution calling for God's love, God's Reflections Ronald Ian Phillips, Ernest Schmidt, David Grotzke, Seth Grotzke, 2022-04-07 Using a unique and ground breaking approach that combines religion with American history these four authors masterfully present a thoroughly researched and captivating account of fifty two inspirational stories of America s exceptionalism intricately woven with God s truths Each story connects the life giving honesty of the American people with a life shaping application from the gospel Individuals interested in the history of the United States or Christianity and looking for an overarching account of what unites us as Americans and believers will be enthralled by these inspiring stories of struggles and triumphs We are not the light just the reflection if we stand close enough to the Source The further we move away from God s will for our lives the more we stumble in the dark But as believers we know there is an all powerful force that will lift us up and help us to walk in the light The goal of God s Reflections Biblical Insight from America s Story is to draw Christians closer to the light source so they can radiate brighter in their service to God and their country and be part of the greatest rescue mission of all making disciples for Jesus Christ God's Unconditional Love Wilkie Au, Noreen Cannon Au, 2016 God s Unconditional Love shows how we meet God s love in our places of shame and darkness and how distorted images of God such as the judging God the indifferent God the demanding God keep us from approaching the God revealed by Jesus Engaging Life's Deepest Questions: Teacher's Guide Dr. Octavian Caius Obeada, 2025-06-26 Teacher s Guide Overview The Teacher s Guide for Engaging Life s Deepest Questions is a thoughtfully designed companion manual aimed at equipping educators to teach apologetics with clarity compassion and spiritual depth Its purpose is to empower instructors not only to deliver theological and philosophical content but to form students in discernment empathy and Christian conviction This guide provides Clear instructional support through chapter objectives key concepts and thematic outlines Engaging classroom tools including thought provoking discussion questions creative exercises formative and summative assessments Practical teaching strategies for navigating sensitive cultural issues with pastoral wisdom and theological integrity Mission as God's Spiral of Renewal Ross, Kenneth R., 2019-02-06 In this remarkable volume covering diverse subjects in a span of three decades Kenneth R Ross articulates his views on the meaning and practice of Christian mission and challenges the binary view of mission that prevailed before the 1950s He further reflects on Scotland's experiences in the world wide Christian mission and demonstrates the centrality of Africa in any discourse on Christianity This volume is invaluable in its argument for a rethinking of Christian mission especially in relation to the West which is now a new frontier for Christian mission The book will be immensely beneficial to students of missiology and general readers who are interested in the subject of Christian Mission

Paradox Lost Catherine Skurja,2013-08-08 What if there was a way to peel back the broken and tattered pieces of ourselves and uncover a new life of freedom adventure and transformation For many of us our misconceptions about the nature and character of the triune God have kept us from the freedom and joy found in our true identity in Christ Damaging cycles of shame and the endless effort to look the part keep us trapped in drama and fear Unable to grasp the paradox of a God who is both Lion and Lamb we end up feeling alone stuck on the banks of the river while a life of passion and adventure beckons Using stories of transformation Paradox Lost presents a framework for understanding our patterns of stuckness and provides specific tools for getting off the riverbanks and into the current With life giving insight into God's nature readers will find the courage to uncover their own wounded places as well as invite others to experience the wholeness of abundant life in Christ

The Treasure of the Word Isidore Okwudili Igwegbe,2016-06-22 Readers of the Bible know events on the Catholic Church's liturgy have scriptural passages referring to them Many however are only familiar with a few One might be surprised at how many more are there for the reading The Treasure of the Word Commentary on Biblical Readings for Sundays Feast Days and Solemnities Cycle B is a life related meditation on the sacred texts within events of the Catholic Church's liturgical calendar Author Isidore Okwudili Igwegbe's work is intended for everyone from the layperson to church leader to those in the clergy Beginning with Advent each insight is based on his experiences teaching leading and breaking the Word of God with mixed Christian congregations in different countries and continents Each chapter begins with the date and event followed by a list of scriptural references Igwegbe's text satisfies human yearning for the meaning of the Word It is an exposition of the good news within the good news a prayerful sharing of the great secret human fate is God's fate and God is an imprudent investor who blesses his capital and his love on every person everywhere and every time This book encourages Christians and all believers to realise they are the centre of God's attention

God's Wider Presence Robert K. Johnston,2014-10-14 What are we to make of those occasional yet illuminating experiences of God's presence that occur outside both church and Scripture We may encounter God's revelatory presence as we experience a beautiful sunset the birth of a child or a work of art music or literature While theologians have tended to describe such experiences abstractly as mere traces or echoes those involved often recognize such moments of transcendence as transformative Here senior theologian Robert Johnston explores how Christians should think theologically about God's wider revelatory presence that is mediated outside the church through creation conscience and culture The book offers a robust constructive biblical theology of general revelation rooting its insights in the broader Trinitarian work of the Spirit Drawing in part from the author's theological engagement with film and the arts the book helps Christians understand personal moments of experiencing God's transcendence and accounts for revelatory experiences of those outside the believing community It also shows how God's revelatory presence can impact our interaction with nonbelievers and those of other faiths

Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections. ABOUT VOLUME ONE: Friendship is an outcome of, as well as a condition for, advancing interfaith relations. However, for friendship to advance, there must be legitimation from within, and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions. Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues, seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions. It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations; in particular, the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews, his closest personal friend. Contributors: Balwant Singh, Dhillion, Timothy J. Gianotti, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Maria Reis Habito, Ruben L. F. Habito, Ryan McAnnally, Linz, Stephen Butler, Murray, Eleanor Nesbitt, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sender, Johann M. Vento, and Miroslav Volf. ABOUT VOLUME TWO: This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even present-day relations. Its operative notion is the healing of memory, developed by John Paul II. Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes. Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is, in some ways, a cross-religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present-day relations. At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope. If memory informs our past, hope sets the horizon for our future. How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future? And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good? Between memory and hope, this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations. Contributors: Rahuldeep Singh, Gill, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Maria Reis Habito, Flora A. Keshgegian, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sender, Muhammad Suheyl Umar, and Michael von Brück. ABOUT VOLUME THREE: The essays collected here, prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy, explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom, learning, teachings, messages for good living. How should religions go about sharing their wisdom? These chapters, representing six faith traditions—Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Sikh, and Buddhist—explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions, why, and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared

Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Miroslav Volf

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so

Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today's world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions

Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism

The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership

Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sendor Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf

VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra Working Blessedly Forever, Volume 1 R. Paul Stevens, 2024-02-20 Work whether from home in cyberspace or in a factory or office occupies a major chunk of our time energy and soul This book seeks to make sense of our work in the world through adapting the pithy statement of the Puritan William Perkins to define marketplace theology as the science of working blessedly forever It is a science involving investigation but not just with the head thought but also with heart prayer and hand practice But it is a science of working So the book investigates a theology of work undertaken in the light of God's blessing and purpose And our work is not just for this life but forever since some of it could last into the new heaven and new earth where guess what Scripture says we will work as fully human and resurrected beings Stevens gathers his lifetime of research and teaching into this book showing through biblical research and contemporary analysis the meaning of work and human enterprise It could change your lifestyle your work style and your soul I Trusted the Process Nicholas A. Meade, 2020-04-12 How does the process of seminary transform Why do you believe what you believe What are some effective methods for preaching How can one be empowered to minister to the masses I Trusted the Process is a reflection upon how one's sojourn through seminary answers these questions Join the author on a journey back in time where his experience or process in seminary transformed him and profoundly shifted the way that he thinks and ministers While some cast doubt on the worth of seminary even going to great lengths of labeling it a cemetery the author's works collected in this volume from his time in seminary show how seminary can challenge someone how it challenges someone to the extent that if that someone trusts the process that someone will come out better on the other side I Trusted the Process provides models and example work from seminary that readers can use to do their own work of determining what they believe and why Works within this volume also provide examples of biblical exegesis preaching methodologies at work reflections on written works and of holistic ministry and a pattern for articulating one's own Christology among other things Navigating through this book for those unable to attend seminary can serve as its own type of process It also provides insight into the mind of one who seeks to help change the world If one is to believe the glowing words from the foreword and the cover such a mind is worth exploration He can say I Trusted the Process Can you
