

A black and white photograph of a coastal landscape. In the foreground, there's a dark, rocky shoreline with some waves crashing against the rocks. The middle ground shows a calm sea extending towards a range of mountains in the background. The mountains are layered, with some peaks appearing more distinct than others due to atmospheric perspective. The sky is bright and slightly hazy. The overall mood is serene and majestic.

My life has been a tapestry of rich and royal hue, an everlasting vision of the ever changing view.

Finding Your Purpose When You Retire L. Richard Bradley PH.D.,2024-06-04 Imagine that you are an ancient mariner standing on a cliff overlooking the ocean at sunrise You are staring at the edge the place where the ocean and the sky meet and wondering What lies beyond Your answer would have been That be dragons Using this analogy imagine you are about to retire or have recently retired and wondering What's out there What do I do now Buy that new sports car take a long vacation play golf or fish every day or try to continue working What's going to get me up in the morning excited to have another day Is there a purpose for my life If so how do I find it There is a lot of information about the financial and medical aspects of retirement but very little about the emotional and spiritual impacts of retiring Retirement is a major life transition which changes everything about how you think about yourself One day your identity is defined by what you do for a living the next day that identity is gone You may feel lost as if the rug has been pulled out from underneath you Who are we now The good news is this feeling is normal you are not going crazy It is part of the normal life cycle Another piece of good news using a process known as guided journaling you will better understand how you got to where you are in your life today and then create your own personal best fit retirement one that gets you up every morning excited for another day to live and serve others Finding Your Purpose When You Retire
