

Old Motor Removal Instructions

Firstly, remove the two black screws located on the motor cover housing, then lift off the motor cover housing. Fig. 1

Remove the PCB mounting screw located in the centre of the PCB. The PCB will now be released from its mounting. Fig. 2

De-solder the mains lead (Brown/Blue) from their eyelets. Also de-solder the switch wires (White/White), so that no leads are left connected to the PCB, except those of the motor itself. The PCB should now be free from the turntable.

Undo the motor mounting screws (located on the top surface of the turntable plinth Fig. 3) using a jewellers screwdriver. At the same time the motor must be supported. The PCB and motor should now come out as one complete unit.

Planar 3 Upgrade Kit Installation Instructions

Warning! Disconnect your turntable from the mains before attempting any work. Do not operate turntable with motor cover removed!

New Motor Installation Instructions

You should now have an empty turntable with the wires leading to the correct positions ready to take the new P3 PCB and motor assembly. Re-cut, strip and re-tin both of the mains lead wires (Brown/Blue). On older variations please loosen the mains lead knot, or remove the mains lead grommet to aid motor installation. See Fig.4 for variations.

Now taking the sticky pad, stick it into the motor housing, on the underside of the turntable plinth making sure the pad is firmly secured, ensuring not to press too hard as the laminate will crack. Steady judgement is required to ensure that the pad is concentric with the hole in the turntable plinth laminate. Fig. 5

The next thing is to fit the PCB tray making sure that the mains lead is securely fixed to the clamp to allow for soldering.

Re-set the PCB tray on the existing mounting block, ready to take the new PCB. Fig.6

Insert the PCB in such a way that the two eyelets are nearest the mains flex that you have just correctly adjusted. (Do not screw in). Now solder the brown wire into the top eyelet and the blue wire into the eyelet just below it.
