

A woman with long, dark, wavy hair is shown from the chest up, looking slightly to her right. She is wearing a brown, textured garment. The background is a sepia-toned image of a historical building with a large dome and arched windows, possibly a cathedral or palace. Bare tree branches are visible in the upper part of the frame. The overall mood is historical and dramatic.

Relative Strangers Frank Cicero, 2011-06-28 An Italian American investigates his family's mixed religious roots in northern Italy and Sicily in this fascinating memoir. Italian Protestants: Few people seem to have heard of them but the author's mother's immigrant Italian family was Protestant while his father's were Catholic immigrants from Sicily. On his father's side with dozens of aunts, uncles and numerous cousins, Catholic family gatherings were loud, often profane, with drinking, smoking, and raucous celebrations of weddings, births, holidays, and other occasions, as well as the mystical rituals inherent in the Catholic faith. By contrast, on his mother's side, family gatherings were small and quiet, with no smoking or drinking, and religion was the core of most family celebrations. But the author had little understanding of the ancient origins of his maternal grandparents' very different Protestant faith, which marked the keen differences between the two sides of the family. Relative Strangers describes the author's search for the religious roots of his parents' families in northern Italy and Sicily. He traces the history of the Waldensians, the Protestant sect which began in Lyon, France, in the twelfth century, often suffering persecution but surviving to this day both in Europe and America.

Professional School Counseling Rosemary Thompson, Dr. Rosemary Thompson, 2012-04-27 Today's children and adolescents are constantly facing new and unique challenges, and school counselors must respond to this by expanding their role and function within the schools. This revised and expanded edition of Thompson's important text explores these issues as well as the necessary steps school counselors need to take in order to adapt and effectively deal with them. Thompson advocates for the need for standards-based school counseling, outlining the framework and benefits of the ASCA National Model and comprehensive guidance and counseling programs. She addresses the newest research in implementing evidence-based practices, the mental health issues that may be faced by children and adolescents, consulting with teachers, parents, administrators, and the community, and crisis intervention and management. New to this edition are chapters that focus on minority and disenfranchised students and emphasize the need for school counselors to be able to advocate, coordinate, and collaborate on services for these students and their families. This is an essential resource for every school counselor in a time when the profession is becoming increasingly important.

Affinities Jennifer Mason, 2018-03-16 How is it possible to feel an affinity with a place? What is happening when someone feels almost literally transported to another time by a smell or a texture or a song? Why do striking family resemblances sometimes feel uncanny? In each of these cases a potent connection is being made involving forces, flows, energies and atmospherics that conventional sociological approaches can find hard to grasp but that are important nonetheless. In this innovative book Jennifer Mason argues that these are affinities: potent charges and charismatically lively connections in personal life that rise up and matter in some way and that enchant or toxify the everyday. She suggests that exploring affinities opens up new possibilities for conceptualizing the experience of living in the world through what she calls the socio-atmospherics of everyday life. This book invites the reader to embrace possibilities and themes that may seem outside the usual range and to engage in a more open, attentive, inventive and poetic sociological sensibility.

Road Warrior A to Z John R. Scannell, 2019-04-23 A Road Warrior's work life demands travel: lots of travel. This Road Warrior's life landed him in all 50 states and 6 foreign countries, covered 4.7 million air miles and required more than 4,000 nights in hotels. And that's where the glamour ends. Road Warrior is for anyone who has ever traveled and experienced airport lines, TSA checkpoints, weather delays, equipment delays, security delays, middle seats, traffic jams or fellow travelers who are by turns enjoyable, crazy, knowledgeable, clueless, helpful, selfish, agreeable and disagreeable and still managed to come out smiling. You'll discover there's no commute like a Road Warrior's commute and you'll delight in the unusual diversity of destinations in this Road Warrior's life: one week working at Churchill Downs, another week flying to a school in a remote Alaskan village on the Iditarod Trail and at other times walking through the heavily guarded precincts of twelve California State prisons. Arranged alphabetically from A is for Advice to Zzzz is for Sleep, Road Warrior is NOT a how-to travel book. It is an anecdotal memoir of the author's determination to thrive, not just survive, during more than two and a half decades on the road.
