Encyclopedia of Lesbian and Gay Histories and Cultures Bonnie Zimmerman, George Haggerty, 2021-06-13 A rich heritage that needs to be documented Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavors It covers a long history and a dynamic and ever changing present while opening up the academic profession to new scholarship and new ways of thinking A groundbreaking new approach While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written for and by a widerange of people Intended as a reference for students and scholars in all fields as well as for the general public the encyclopedia is written in user friendly language At the same time it maintains a high level of scholarship that incorporates both passion and objectivity It is written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new scholars whose research continues to advance gender studies into the future

Inspiration and Technique John Roe, Michele Stanco, 2007 While Plato extols inspired poetry as opposed to poetry produced by means of technique Aristotle conceives of poetry only in terms of techn Underlying the opposition between inspiration and technique are two different approaches to form inspiration is concerned with the impression of ideas or forms within the poet s psyche the author s forma mentis whereas technique deals with the transposition of the artist s idea into the material form of the work the forma operis This dual view of form and of its complex relation to matter may be said to lie at the basis of a dual approach to aesthetic issues a psychological and a textual one Taking their cue from this opposition the essays gathered here explore some of the most momentous phases in the history of aesthetics from Graeco Roman philosophy and oratory to Renaissance poetry and literary criticism from neoclassical poetics to Romantic and Victorian views on inspired visions to recent issues in neuroaesthetics philosophy of art and literary linguistics In so doing they collectively point to the irremediable and continuing dualism of a critical tradition that has alternately emphasized the ideal elements of beauty and the material constituents of art
