Chain of Command

refers to the orderly line of authority within the ranks of the incident management organization.

Unity of Command

means that each individual has a designated supervisor to whom he or she reports at the scene of the incident.

Unified Command

allows agencies with different legal, geographic, and functional authorities and responsibilities to work together effectively without affecting individual agency authority, responsibility, or accountability.

The command function must be clearly established from the beginning of an incident. When command is transferred, the process must include:

A briefing that captures all essential information for continuing safe and effective operations.

Accountability means that individuals must abide by their agency policies and guidelines and any applicable local, tribal, State, or Federal rules and regulations.
