Traditions & Encounters Jerry H. Bentley, Herbert F. Ziegler, 2006 On the basis of a superficial inspection Traditions Encounters might look similar to several other textbooks that survey the world's past Like other books for example Traditions Encounters examines the historical development of societies in Asia Europe Africa the Americas and Oceania Yet Traditions Encounters differs from other works in two particularly important ways First it relies on a pair of prominent themes to bring a global perspective to the study of world history it traces the historical development of individual societies in all world regions and it also focuses attention systematically on interactions between peoples of different societies Second it organizes the human past into seven eras that represent distinct and coherent periods of global historical development Preface Page xvi

but applicable and relevant      Maps of Time David Christian,2011-09 Introducing a novel perspective on the study of history David Christian views the interaction of the natural world with the more recent arrivals in flora fauna including human beings      Readings in Medieval History, Fifth Edition Patrick Geary,2015-11-02 Patrick J Geary s highly acclaimed collection of source materials on the Western medieval world is well known for offering an excellent selection of substantial excerpts or entire documents wherever possible from the most widely studied historical texts This much anticipated fifth edition features a larger format as well as enlarged type to make the collection more reader friendly Study questions have been added at the end of each section to help students focus on key points in the text New documents on the Black Death William of Rubruck and Marco Polo are included as well as a new selection from St Benedict s Rule for Monasteries and a new translation of Einhard s The Life of Charlemagne Two color photo sections have been added introducing students to fascinating medieval art such as a fifth century ivory from Constantinople the two earliest images of Joan of Arc the Sachsenspiegel and a shirt that belonged to Queen Bathild

Conflict, Bargaining, and Kinship Networks in Medieval Eastern Europe Christian Raffensperger,2018-04-26 Conflict Bargaining and Kinship Networks in Medieval Eastern Europe takes the familiar view of Eastern Europe families and conflicts and stands it on its head Instead of a world rife with civil war and killing this book presents a relatively structured environment where conflict is engaged in for the purposes of advancing one s position and where death among the royal families is relatively rare At the heart of this analysis is the use of situational kinship networks relationships created by elites for the purposes of engaging in conflict with their own kin but only for the duration of a particular conflict A new image of medieval Eastern Europe less consumed by civil war and mass death will change the perception of medieval Eastern Europe in the minds of readers This new perception is essential to not only present the past more accurately but also to allow for medieval Eastern Europe s integration into the larger medieval world as something other than an aberrant other      Prophetic Encounters Dan McKanan,2011 Though in recent years the religious right has been a powerful political force making religion and conservatism synonymous in the minds of many the United States has always had an active vibrant and influential religious Left In every period of our history people of faith have envisioned a society of peace and justice and their tireless efforts have made an indelible mark on our nation s history In Prophetic Encounters Dan McKanan challenges simple distinctions between religious and secular activism showing that religious beliefs and practices have been integral to every movement promoting liberty equality and solidarity
