Between Transcendence and Historicism Brian K. Etter,2006-06-01 Between Transcendence and Historicism explores Hegel s aesthetics within the larger context of the tradition of theoretical reflection to emphasize its unique ability to account for traditional artistic practice Arguing that the concept of the ethical is central to Hegel s philosophy of art Brian K Etter examines the poverty of modernist aesthetic theories in contrast to the affirmation by Hegel of the necessity of art He focuses on the individual arts in greater detail than is normally done for Hegel s aesthetics and considers how the dual constitution of the ethical nature of art can be justified both within Hegel s own philosophical system and in terms of its relevance to the dilemmas of modern social life Etter concludes that the arts have a responsibility to represent the goodness of existence the ideal and the ethical life in dignifying the metaxological realm through their beauty

Hollywood Shot by Shot Norman K. Denzin, To what extent have Hollywood feature films shaped the meanings that Americans attach to alcoholics their families and the alcoholic condition To what extent has the mass culture of the movie industry itself been conceptually shaped by a broad external societal discourse Norman Denzin brings to his life long study of alcoholism a searching interest in how cultural texts signify and lend themselves to interpretation within a social nexus Both historical and diachronic in his approach Denzin identifies between human beings Finally the book shows how ironic twists onscreen especially of contradictory emotions might evoke a reappraisal of feelings helping spectators to be more attentive to their own impulses Through this interdisciplinary study scholars artists and general readers will find a fresh way to understand the potential for interactive mindfulness and yet cathartic backfire between human brains in cinema in theater and in daily life Fruits of Sorrow Elizabeth V.
