

La femme dans “la Tentation de l’Occident”

La femme est un objet assez digne d'intérêt, susceptible, comme l'œuvre d'art, de beauté, et destinée à l'accomplissement de certains devoirs. Qu'elle soit féconde et fidèle, si elle doit être épouse ; belle, si elle doit être concubine ; experte, si elle doit être courtisane. Lascive, cela n'est point désirable ; il suffit qu'elle soit habile à servir son mari ou à dispenser à son amant des divertissements agréables variés. L'idée que nous avons d'elle nous empêche de lui prêter une personnalité particulière.

The Coming Authoritarian Ecology Fabrice Flipo, 2018-05-24 The book examines ecological issues such as climate change and biodiversity articulating local and global scales and short and long term perspectives questioning what development and progress are The goal is to show how diverging points of view are conflictually articulated to one another in a political ideology perspective This perspective which is close to the main actor's point of view allows displacement of the usual analysis and offers a new synthesis

A New Reading of Jacques Ellul Jacob Marques Rollison, 2020-09-10 This book presents an original and dynamic reading of the twentieth century French sociologist and theological ethicist Jacques Ellul Adopting Ellul's use of presence as a hermeneutical key to understanding his work it examines the origins of Ellul's approach to presence in his readings of Kierkegaard and the biblical book of Ecclesiastes highlights the central structural role of presence in Ellul's theological ethics and elucidates a crucial turning point in Ellul's theology following a personal crisis in Ellul's faith and life Drawing from numerous unpublished and untranslated texts Jacob Marques Rollison argues that this crisis involves confrontation with a critique of presence manifest in Ellul's reading of and engagement with Michel Foucault Marques Rollison distills Ellul's sociological critiques and theological responses to this crisis presenting Ellul's evolving theology against the background of major shifts in French intellectual life In doing so the author simultaneously calls for renewed engagement with Ellul's prophetic thought critically appraises Ellul's dialectical theology and Marxist inheritances and develops a robustly Protestant approach to theological communication ethics for our time

The Word of God in the Ethics of Jacques Ellul David W. Gill, 2022-06-30 The Word of God in the Ethics of Jacques Ellul originated 1979 as one of the first PhD dissertations on the thought of French sociologist and theologian Jacques Ellul 1912-94 author of some sixty volumes on the nature and impact of modern technology and on Christian ethics Ethicist David Gill studied with Ellul and devoted his own career to an exploration of how Jesus and Scripture can bring the Word of God to our contemporary world especially to our work and technology More recently Jacques Ellul and the Bible Toward a Hermeneutic of Freedom edited by Jacob Marques Rollison Wipf Stock 2020 including an essay by David Gill adds fresh insight to this critical topic

Europe's Existential Dilemma Guy Mettan, 2021-07-01 While Europe as a whole remains a first world economic power despite Brexit it has been unable to build a truly democratic and efficient state or carry weight as a respected power on the international scene Its splendid intellectual and artistic icons of the past two centuries are dimming in memory No longer is Europe a radiant cultural Mecca for the world Mettan examines in greater depth the problems confronting contemporary Europe its democratic deficit the stifling primacy of economics and law over politics the sprawling expansion of an ever unsatisfactory governing institutions its inability to secure peace within its territory and far from least the ongoing encroachment on its sovereignty by the United States Europe faces two possible futures It can choose to lapse into insignificance subservient to ever increasing US demands and ascendancy unable to address its unique concerns in defense or energy policy while being denied potential economic benefits from a rising China and forced into ever deeper and dangerous confrontation with Russia Or Europeans fully conscious of what is at stake face up to Europe s problems and create an institutional framework that will enable it to stave off its inevitable decline into vassalization seizing the opportunity of the new space opened by the emerging Chinese power to create a truly democratic and sovereign federal union Switzerland provides a model Jacques Ellul and the Technological Society in the 21st Century Helena M. Jerónimo, José Luís Garcia, Carl Mitcham, 2013-07-08 This volume rethinks the work of Jacques Ellul 1912 1994 on the centenary of his birth by presenting an overview of the current debates based on Ellul s insights As one of the most significant twentieth century thinkers about technology Ellul was among the first thinkers to realize the importance of topics such as globalization terrorism communication technologies and ecology and study them from a technological perspective The book is divided into three sections The first discusses Ellul s diagnosis of modern society and addresses the reception of his work on the technological society the notion of efficiency the process of symbolization de symbolization and ecology The second analyzes communicational and cultural problems as well as threats and trends in early twenty first century societies Many of the issues Ellul saw as crucial such as energy propaganda applied life sciences and communication continue to be so In fact they have grown exponentially on a global scale producing new forms of risk Essays in the final section examine the duality of reason and revelation They pursue an understanding of Ellul in terms of the depth of experience and the traditions of human knowledge which is to say on the one hand the experience of the human being as contained in the rationalist sociological and philosophical traditions On the other hand there are the transcendent roots of human existence as well as revealed knowledge in the mystical and religious traditions The meeting of these two traditions enables us to look at Ellul s work as a whole but above all it opens up a space for examining religious life in the technological society Jacques Ellul Jacob E. Van Vleet, Jacob Marques Rollison, 2020-04-13 Jacques Ellul 1912 1994 was Professor of the History and Sociology of Institutions at the University of Bordeaux A sociologist historian and Protestant lay theologian Ellul is primarily known for his writings on technology propaganda and Christian anarchism He influenced a wide array of thinkers including Ivan Illich William Stringfellow Thomas Merton Paul Virilio and Neil Postman In this book Jacob Van Vleet and Jacob Marques Rollison guide readers through Ellul s most influential theological and sociological writings By understanding Ellul s primary works readers will be able to clearly grasp his social theory and theological ethics profiting from his deep insight and prophetic wisdom KONDRATIEFF WAVES Leonid E. Imago Dei: Man/Woman Created in the Image of God George Hobson, 2019-09-30. The question What is human nature is in vogue today. Like everything else, this concept is being deconstructed in the context of the reigning ideology of individualistic materialism. Is there a fixed human nature or is this simply a manipulatable social construct with no objective reference? This book says Yes, there is the imago Dei, man/woman created in the image of God. Hobson argues that this text from Genesis 1:26-28 is a God-given anthropological revelation that establishes the relational bond of human beings with their Creator and also with his creation for which the imago equips us to be responsible stewards. Many of Hobson's essays were delivered as talks in parishes. They explore from multiple angles the import of the imago Dei for theological and sacramental reflection, apologetics, aesthetics, art and at a hands-on practical level for pastoral counseling and inner healing. His texts, one of which opens with a discussion of genocide, contain incisive critiques of the dark side of modernity alongside wide-ranging demonstrations of the pertinence of the imago Dei to the current debates about human dignity and rights. His book is a ringing call to the church to take the measure of the value of this anthropological revelation for its proclamation of the gospel. Technique, Discourse, and

Consciousness David Lovekin, 2022-05-19. This study examines the French thinker Jacques Ellul (1912-1994) and his historical, biblical and social analyses of how technology manipulates and impoverishes modern thought, culture and language. In the spirit of Georg Hegel and Ernst Cassirer, Ellul explores how technology begins in myths, stories and religion, advances to tools and then develops into data, algorithms and abstract systems which are detached from human bodies and communities. Efficiency then becomes an absolute in all areas of human life and the mentality of technique becomes lost in its creations. These modern symbols, posing as ultimate human goods and values, are denigrated by technique, leaving humanity awash in clichés in groundless social media and in blathering slogans that sustain the illusion that politics and culture have now become. Space in Theory Russell West-Pavlov, 2009-01-01. Space in Theory Kristeva, Foucault, Deleuze seeks to give a detailed but succinct overview of the role of spatial reflection in three of the most influential French critical thinkers of recent decades. It proposes a step-by-step analysis of the changing place of space in their theories, focussing on the common problematic all three critics address but highlighting the significant differences between them. It aims to rectify an unaccountable absence of detailed analysis to the significance of space in their work up until now Space in Theory argues that Kristeva Foucault and Deleuze address the question How are meaning and knowledge produced in contemporary society What makes it possible to speak and think in ways we take for granted The answer which all three thinkers provide is space This space takes various forms psychic subjective space in Kristeva power knowledge space in Foucault and the spaces of life as multiple flows of becoming in Deleuze This book alternates between analyses of these thinkers theoretical texts and brief digressions into literary texts by Barrico de Beauvoir Beckett Bodro i or Bonnefoy via Borges Forster Gide Gilbert Glissant Hall to Kafka Ondaatje Proust Sartre Warner and Woolf These detours through literature aim to render more concrete and accessible the highly complex conceptualization of contemporary spatial theory This volume is aimed at students postgraduates and researchers interested in the areas of French poststructuralist theory spatial reflection or more generally contemporary cultural theory and cultural studies

Cybernetic Revolution and Global Aging Leonid Grinin, Anton Grinin, Andrey Korotayev, 2024-05-17 This book explores the global technological transformations that have shaped development of society for eons from the emergence of Homo sapiens to the modern day Looking at a potential future for all of this century and the beginning of the next the book explores how society is changing as a result of the two most powerful trends technological advances and global aging It studies the forthcoming technological wave the Cybernetic Revolution which will encompass AI medical technology and biotechnology robotics cognitive nanotechnology etc In turn it shows why and how global aging will become one of the most powerful factors influencing the evolution of society and the World System as a whole Lastly the book demonstrates how technological innovations can change the way people live and the society of the future assessing both the new opportunities and threats posed by uncontrolled technological progress Accordingly it will appeal to social scientists political scientists economists and historians who are interested in technological transformations and their social and economic impacts

The Betrayal of the West Jacques Ellul, 1978 Jacques Ellul is primarily known for his insightful critiques of Western culture His recent books describe the new demons let loose upon the contemporary world by the double edged achievements of science and industry But he asserts in this latest book the critics have gone too far The West is the victim of a betrayal that of its own children Its intellectuals most notably those of the Left are necessarily that products of a civilized society Yet they so loudly reproach this civilization for the atrocities and the destruction of rich local culture which have accompanied its growth that we are deaf to the reasoned voice which proclaims our debts to this Western tradition When Ellul acknowledges the validity of many of these accusations in The Betrayal Of The West he points out that they are not peculiar to the West that they are indeed inherent in the growth of any civilization And Ellul as an historian is a lover of civilization He especially emphasizes the importance of the legacy of our own civilization We are indebted to the West for our concepts of freedom equality and above all the idea of the individual In his words The West represents values for which there is no substitute The West is a past a difference a shared history and a shared human project The end of the West today would mean the end of any possible civilization The Betrayal of the West explores the need for defense as well as critique of our culture It explains the origins of the contradiction at the heart of Western Civilization and traces the course of this dialectic in three supreme chapters constructed around metaphors which correspond to the promise the challenge and ultimately the failure of the political left in Western societies

The Cybernetic Revolution and the Forthcoming Epoch of Self-Regulating Systems Grinin, Leonid, Grinin, Anton L., 2016-01-01 The monograph presents the ideas about the main changes that occurred in the development of technologies from the emergence of Homo sapiens till present time and outlines the prospects of their development in the next 30 60 years and in some respect until the end of the twenty first century What determines the transition of a society from one level of development to another One of the most fundamental causes is the global technological transformations Among all major technological breakthroughs in history the most important are three production revolutions 1 the Agrarian Revolution 2 the Industrial Revolution and 3 the Cybernetic one The book introduces the theory of production revolutions which is a new valuable explanatory paradigm that analyzes causes and trends of dramatic shifts in historical process The authors describe the course of technological transformations in history and demonstrate a possible application of the theory to explain the present and forthcoming technological changes They analyze the technological shifts which took place in the second half of the twentieth and early twenty first centuries and forecast the main shifts in the next half a century On this basis the authors present a detailed analysis of the latest production revolution which is denoted as cybernetic They make some predictions about its development in the nearest five decades and up to the end of the twenty first century and show that the development of various self regulating systems will be the main trend of this revolution The authors argue that the transition to the starting final phase of the Cybernetic Revolution in the 2030 2040s will first occur in the field of medicine in some of its innovative branches In future we will deal with the started convergence of innovative technologies which will form the system of MANBRIC technologies i e the technological paradigm based on medicine additive nano and bio technologies robotics IT and cognitive technologies The monograph gives an outline of the future breakthroughs in medicine and some other technologies between the 2010s and 2070s

Presence in the Modern World Jacques Ellul, 2017-09-28 Presence in the Modern World is Jacques Ellul's most foundational book combining his social analysis with his theological orientation Appearing first in French in 1948 and later in English as The Presence of the Kingdom it has reached the status of a classic that retains all of its relevance dealing with today's challenges How should we respond to such complex forces as technology or the state How can we communicate with one another despite the problems inner to modern forms of media Do we have hope for the future of our civilisation Ellul responds by describing how a Christian's unique presence in the world can make a difference Instead of acting as sociological beings we must commit ourselves to the kind of revolution that will occur only when we become radically aware of our present situation and undertake a ferocious and passionate destruction of myths In this way states Ellul we become the medium for God's action in
