Organisations Olga Kuzmina,Stefan Hoyle,2020-11-19 This book provides a summary of the main obstacles for creating and maintaining high standards of health and safety in higher education and research organisations The obstacles include high staff turnover and an uncertain and constantly evolving research environment small groups lacking unified management structure deadline time pressures restricted funding models and existing old school culture Often the Health and Safety specialists and personnel managers in these organisations find themselves reiterating the same information which gets lost as soon as the new cohort of workers arrives Providing insight into methods of managing health and safety training and supervision which help to build a strong and reliable health and safety system this book is a collection of best practices from experienced safety professionals and researchers in Europe and the United States These experiences demonstrate how health and safety professionals have overcome these issues and provide readers with ideas and models they can use in their own organisations The information contained within is aimed at health and safety professionals and managers in universities and research organisations conducting scientific and engineering research with transient workers and students worldwide

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno,Lucas Klein,Chris Song,2023-10-19 Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation Reinventing the Open Door Gunder Myran,Gunder A. Myran,2009-12 Offers a new broader model of the open door philosophy of community colleges to better serve an increasingly diverse student population by not only ensuring access to higher education but also by ensuring success a campus environment of inclusiveness and the colleges engagement with the communities they serve Provided by publisher Product Liability Reform United States.
