Reframing Indigenous Biography Shino Konishi, Malcolm Allbrook, Tom Griffiths, 2024-11-11 This book explores the history practice and possibilities of writing about the lives of First Nations peoples in Australia as well as Aotearoa New Zealand North America and the Pacific This interdisciplinary collection recognises the limitations of Western biographical conventions for writing Indigenous long and short form biographies Through a series of diverse life stories of both historical and contemporary First Nations figures this book investigates innovative ways to ameliorate the challenges we face in recovering the stories of Indigenous people and reimagining their lives in productive new ways Many of the chapters in this collection are deeply reflective aiming not just to relate the life story of an individual but also to reflect on the archival intellectual and emotional journeys that biographers undertake in researching Indigenous biography This volume will be of value to scholars and students interested in Indigenous Studies biography history literature creative writing archaeology and colonial and postcolonial studies

#Journalism | #Joernalistiek4.0 Lizette Rabe, 2018-02-28 Stellenbosch University s Department of Journalism celebrates its 40th anniversary with this publication reflecting on the four decades between 1978 and 2018 and all that happened behind 26 Crozier Street's front door But in essence it celebrates a lot more It is an assessment of the importance of the media's essential role in a democracy This collection of essays therefore is a celebration of the inalienable right of freedom of expression especially in the form of media freedom

Liberation and Development Leslie Anne Hadfield, 2016-05-01 Liberation and Development Black Consciousness Community Programs in South Africa is an account of the community development programs of the Black Consciousness movement in South Africa It covers the emergence of the movement's ideas and practices in the context of the late 1960s and early 1970s then analyzes how activists refined their practices mobilized resources and influenced people through their work The book examines this history primarily through the Black Community Programs organization and its three major projects the yearbook Black Review the Zanempilo Community Health Center and the Njwaxa leatherwork factory As opposed to better known studies of antipolitical macroeconomic initiatives this book shows that people from the so called global South led development in innovative ways that promised to increase social and political participation It particularly explores the power that youth women and churches had in leading change in a hostile political environment With this new perspective on a major liberation movement Hadfield not only causes us to rethink aspects of African history but also offers lessons from the past for African societies still dealing with developmental challenges similar to those faced during apartheid These Bones Will Rise Again Panashe Chigumadzi, 2018-06-14 What are the right questions to ask when seeking out the spirit of a nation In November 2017 the people of Zimbabwe took to the streets in an unprecedented alliance with the military Their goal to restore the legacy of Chimurenga the liberation struggle and wrest their country back from more than 30 years of Robert Mugabe's rule In an essay that combines bold reportage memoir and critical analysis Zimbabwean novelist and journalist Panashe Chigumadzi reflects on the coup that was not a coup the telling of history and manipulation of time and the ancestral spirits of two women her own grandmother and Mbuya Nehanda the grandmother of the nation State Capture in South Africa Karl von Holdt, Robyn Foley, Ryan Brunette, Jonathan Klaaren, Chereese Thakur, Devi Pillay, Luke Spiropoulos, Reg Rumney, Sizwe Mpofu-Walsh, Michael Marchant, Hennie van Vuuren, Patrick Heller, Barney Pityana, 2023-06 A multidisciplinary analysis of how state capture unfolded in South Africa and was contested within both civil society and the state itself It presents a scholarly and empirical understanding of how things went awry even with various regulating bodies in place and how to prevent state capture from happening again in the future The metaphor of state capture has dominated South Africa's political discourse in the post Zuma presidency era What is state capture and how does it manifest Is it just another example of a newly independent failed African state And is it unique to South Africa The contributors in this collection try to explain the phenomenon from a variety of viewpoints and disciplines All hold fast to the belief that the democracy that promised the country so much when apartheid ended has been significantly eroded resulting in most citizens expressing a loss of hope for the future Read together the essays cumulatively show not only how state capture was enabled and who benefitted but also how and by whom it was scrutinised and exposed in order to hold those in power accountable The book aims to present a scholarly and empirical understanding of how things went awry even with various regulating bodies in place and how to prevent state capture from happening again in the future Imperial Britain Andrew S.

Thompson,2014-07-30 This new study considers the impact of the empire upon modern British political culture The economic and cultural legacy of empire have received a great deal of attention but historians have neglected the effects of empire upon the domestic British political scene Dr Thompson explores economic demographic intellectual and military influences and he shows how parliamentary and party opinion interacted with imperial ideas and interests in the country at large This is a major new book which explores the ideology of key imperial campaigns and their popular support It makes a critical contribution to recent debates about the importance of empire to the nature and development of British national identities before and after the First World War Women, Mobility and Rural Livelihoods in Zimbabwe Patience

Mutopo,2014-09-11 This book is based on iterative multi sited ethnography at Merrivale farm Tavaka village and various sites in South Africa The author reveals how the dynamics generated by fast track potentially offer new development opportunities specifically for women The findings challenge existing expert notions and opinions about women s rural land use livelihoods and rural development The book examines how negotiations and bargaining by women with family state and traditional actors have proved useful in accessing land in Mwenezi district Zimbabwe The hidden complex and innovative ways adopted by women to access land and shape livelihoods based on transitory mobility are examined The role of collective action conflicts conflict resolution and women s agency in overcoming the challenges associated with trading in South Africa are examined within the ambit of the sustainable livelihoods framework a gendered approach to land reform and social networks analysis Nationalism, Politics and Anthropology Ilana van Wyk,Jimmy Pieterse,2022-02-28 In this book Ilana van Wyk and Jimmy Pieterse interrogate the question of political subjectivity and its role in the making of anthropology and anthropologists by revisiting the pitched battles between so called liberal social anthropologists and conservative nationalist volkekundiges in South Africa They pay particular attention to the social and cultural lives of two men who were central proponents of South African anthropology s two tales Kees van der Waal a former volkekundige and John Sharp once one of volkekunde s fiercest critics Through a series of conversations with Kees and John they show that the issues that once divided a local field still animate the ways in which centres and peripheries of global anthropology relate to one another and to foundational questions about the discipline s epistemology and political positionality The Northwestern Miller ,1922

CIO ,2001-11-01 Women's Empowerment for a Sustainable Future Claude-Hélène Mayer,Elisabeth

Vanderheiden,Orna Braun-Lewensohn,Gila Chen,Kiyoko Sueda,Brightness Mangolothi,Saba Safdar,Soyeon Kim,2023-07-08 This edited volume focuses on women s empowerment for a sustainable future It takes cultural and transcultural and positive psychology perspectives into consideration and explores the topic of women s empowerment from diverse stances across social strata cultural divides as well as economic and political divisions It addresses the critique of the overly Western focus of positive psychology on this topic by adopting a transnational and transcultural lens and by taking non WEIRD Western Educated Industrialized Rich Democratic samples into in depth consideration The chapters therefore focus on women from diverse socio cultural political socio economic backgrounds and discuss their ways of empowering others and being empowered They also discuss related positive psychology constructs such as coping resilience transformation growth leadership creativity identity development sustainable action as well as positive socio economic political and eco sustainable thought and action The volume as a whole looks at women s leadership as a factor of empowerment A further fundamental assumption is that women s empowerment is needed to create a sustainable future at micro meso and macro levels which presumes safety peace ecological considerations and compassionate leadership

A Vision of Order Ursula A. Barnett,1983 The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980 South African Democracy Education Trust,2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about

Indenture Aesthetics Jordache A Ellapen,2024-11-29 In Indenture Aesthetics Jordache A Ellapen examines the visual and performance art practices of feminist queer femme and gender nonconforming Afro Indian and South African black artists to understand the paradoxes of freedom in contemporary South Africa Tracing the afterlife of apartheid era racial categories and revisiting Bantu Stephen Biko s Black Consciousness Ellapen theorizes South African blackness through the Indian Ocean World showing how the development of an Afro Indian identity after generations of indentured labor and segregation troubles persistent racial hierarchies Staging unexpected encounters between artists such as Sharlene Khan Mohau Modisakeng

Lebohang Kganye and Reshma Chhibha he analyzes how their works challenge these racial categories to create new imaginaries of freedom Situated in a context in which the authentic hetero normative black subject of the post apartheid state is bracketed from other formulations of blackness these artists aesthetic practices alongside those of other artists like Ellapen himself disrupt desires for national belonging and catalyze alternative and transgressive politics and subjects By rethinking the relationship between blackness Afro Indianness and Africanness Ellapen highlights the role of the aesthetic in crafting a blueprint for coalitional building across difference in contemporary South Africa
