A Medium of Inter-Communication for Literary Men, Artists, Antiquaries, Genealogists, Etc ,1871 Leaping Over the Caudine Forks of Capitalism Zhao Jiaxiang,2020-06-09 In the four volumes of The Development Trajectory of Eastern Societies and the Theories and Practices of Socialism the author re examines the Marx and Engel s theories on the development trajectory of Eastern societies by integrating theoretical analysis of Marxist theories and a historical investigation of socialist revolution and construction around the world This volume discusses the desire of the Russian commune to leap over the Caudine Forks of capitalism which means to avoid the torments of the capitalist system according to Marx and Engels theories The author argues that it is essential to use the logic intrinsic in Marx and Engels own works rather than those of subsequent disciples such as Lenin as well as other leaders in the Soviet Union or within China s contemporary socialism Readers who study Marxism Marxist philosophy philosophical history and the history of philosophy will find this volume interesting The Greenwood Dictionary of World History John J. Library,1999 The Writers Directory ,2013 Encounters with Islam in German Literature and Culture James R. Hodkinson,Jeffrey Morrison,2009 German language writings about Islam not only reveal much about Islamic culture but also about the European home culture Islam has been a rich topic in German language literature since the middle ages and the writings about it not only reveal much about Islamic culture but also about the European home culture Many of the early essays in this chronologically arranged volume uncover fresh evidence of how German writers used images of Islam as other to define their individual subject positions as well as to define the German nation and the Christian religion The perspectives of many contemporary writers are however far removed from such a polar opposition of cultures Their experience of the German Islamic encounter is complicated by a crucial factor many of them emerge from Muslim migrant communities such as the German Turkish community The culturally hybrid origins of these writers and their expression of experiences and ideologies that cross boundaries of East and West Christendom and Islam strongly affect the findings of the essays as the volume moves toward the present The texts discussed include travelogues and other firsthand encounters with Islam reports for colonial authorities aesthetic treatises on Islamic art literary essayistic and theological writing on Islamic religious practice the incorporation of characters situations and settings from the Islamic world into fiction or drama and fictional and autobiographical writing by Muslims in German Contributors Cyril Edwards Silke Falkner James Hodgkinson Timothy R Jackson Margaret Littler Rachel MagShamr in Frauke Matthes Yomb May Jeffrey Morrison Kate Roy Monika Shafi Edwin Wieringa W Daniel Wilson Karin E Yesilada James Hodgkinson is Assistant Professor of German at Warwick University Jeffrey Morrison is Senior Lecturer at the National University of Ireland Maynooth

Living More Human(e)ly? Rebecca Leong, 2025-04-22 Does it really matter who one chooses to marry and how one makes a choice as to who to marry or is it basically true that you always marry the wrong person Was Jane Austen right in her portrayals of couples marrying for love for comfort or for both What about arranged marriages Does the one exist How about soulmates Will getting involved in casual sex or hook up culture affect one's chances of eventually realizing happy lifelong monogamy Are promoters of purity culture basically right that their approach will help lead to happy lasting marriages Can there be a way forward through the culture wars Are dating apps any good Virtue ethics is sometimes drawn upon for a dependable approach to couple relationships But what does this approach consist of and which virtues as there are potentially very many should one focus on particularly when navigating dating culture in contemporary contexts What light might theology history and the human sciences including sociology and psychology shed on these matters Rebecca Leong offers findings from wide ranging interdisciplinary studies that address these questions and more in the process developing a five fold ethic and further building blocks for better approaches to dating in contemporary contexts

A New History of American and Canadian Folk Music Dick Weissman,2019-09-05 Building on his 2006 book Which Side Are You On Dick Weissman s A New History of American and Canadian Folk Music presents a provocative discussion of the history evolution and current status of folk music in the United States and Canada North American folk music achieved a high level of popular acceptance in the late 1950s When it was replaced by various forms of rock music it became a more specialized musical niche fragmenting into a proliferation of musical styles In the pop folk revival of the 1960s artists were celebrated or rejected for popularizing the music to a mass audience In particular the music seemed to embrace a quest for authenticity which has led to endless explorations of what is or is not faithful to the original concept of traditional music This book examines the history of folk music into the 21st century and how it evolved from an agrarian style as it became increasingly urbanized Scholar performer Dick Weissman himself a veteran of the popularization wars is uniquely qualified to examine the many controversies and musical evolutions of the music including a detailed discussion of the quest for authenticity and how various musicians critics and fans have defined that pursuit

Our known world the world of twenty first century Americans is shaped and defined by consumer choice The premise of consumer choice is that somewhere the perfect fit between product and purchaser exists In the books on changing traditions the consumerist tone prevails fundamentalists looking for an even more literal interpretation of Scripture Protestants going home to Rome feminists heading to the womyncentric sacred grove conservatives fleeing inclusive rites Catholics embracing the independent seeker church But the consumerist impulse masks the kind of prayer and discernment necessary for living in Christian community and for following God Twenty first century

Christians do make choices but the hope is that they do so because they follow God How then is one to answer the question of whether to stay or leave Through meditating on the fruits of the Spirit that Paul addressed to the church at Galatia a community that had several of its members wondering whether to stay or leave Bennett and Nussbaum offer sage reflections about what it means to be led into and out of Christian communions

Witcraft Jonathan Rée,2019-08-20 An ambitious new history of philosophy in English that broadens the canon to include many lesser known figures Ludwig Wittgenstein once wrote that philosophy should be written like poetry But philosophy has often been presented more prosaically as a long trudge through canonical authors and great works But what Jonathan R e asks if we instead saw the history of philosophy as a haphazard series of unmapped forest paths a mass of individual stories showing endurance inventiveness bewilderment anxiety impatience and good humor Here Jonathan R e brilliantly retells this history covering such figures as Descartes Locke Kant Hegel Marx Nietzsche Mill James Frege Wittgenstein and Sartre But he also includes authors not usually associated with philosophy such as William Hazlitt George Eliot Darwin and W H Auden Above all he uncovers dozens of unremembered figures puritans revolutionaries pantheists feminists nihilists socialists and scientists who were passionate and active readers of philosophy and often authors themselves Breaking away from high altitude narratives he shows how philosophy finds its way into ordinary lives enriching and transforming them in unexpected ways
