Sauvant, J. Pradhan, A. Chatterjee, B. Harley, 2010-11-22 The contributors explore the rapid growth of Indian multinationals and provide valuable insights into the patterns and trends of their outward investments and the factors that led to their emergence in the global FDI market They also look at their continuously evolving strategies in the global economy Annual Report India. Ministry of External Affairs, 2002 International Mobility, Global Capitalism, and Changing Structures of Accumulation Anthony P. D'Costa, 2015-11-19 International mobility is not a new concept as people have moved throughout history voluntarily and forcibly for personal familial economic political and professional reasons Yet the mobility of technical talent in the global economy is relatively new largely voluntary structurally determined by market forces and influenced by immigration policies With over a decade's worth of extensive research in India Japan Finland and Singapore this book provides an alternative understanding of how capitalism functions at the global level by specifically analyzing the international movement of technical professionals between India and Japan There are three factors that inform this study the services transition away from manufacturing the movement of technical professionals in the world economy and the demographic crisis facing Japan The dynamics of changing capitalism are examined by theorizing the emergence of the services sector in the USA and Japan analyzing the pronounced social inequality in India that is the basis for the global supply of highly skilled technical professionals and providing considerable empirical data on the flows of professionals to these two countries to indicate Japan's institutional inflexibility in accommodating foreign talent The author anticipates that Japanese industry will shed some of its institutional rigidity due to the pressures of competition and the scarcity of technical professionals Providing a wealth of information on the topic of international mobility this book is an essential addition for scholars and students in the field of International Development Business Studies Asian Studies Migration Studies and Political Economy ProjectX India Sandeep Sharma,2022-05-01 ProjectX India 1st May 2022 edition provides you with power packed information on 224 projects contracts and tenders from 58 sectors and sub sectors of the Indian economy In this issue we have covered 77 projects in Conceptual Planning Stage 41 Contract Awards 9 Projects Under Implementation 80 Tenders and 17 other projects The project information is provided along with the nearest contacts as available in the public domain to facilitate B2B exchange This e book serves all those who are interested to know and tap the project opportunities in the Construction Infrastructure and Industrial segment Our aim is to serve you with the right information on upcoming and ongoing projects contracts and tenders from India The business opportunities are coming to the fore each day and we at ProjectX are eager to grab and provide the information which can make a difference to your business Identify the right project through ProjectX India and accelerate your business Note This is an archival edition to get the latest issue or know more about us you can visit our website www.projectxindia.com The Changing Landscape of Workplace and Workforce Hadi El-Farr,2024-06-05 This book represents a collaborative effort by a multinational group of scholars aiming to contribute to the evolving discourse on the nature of work and the workplace in the 21st century Its chapters offer a blend of literature reviews theoretical insights and empirical findings drawn from diverse national contexts Employing a range of research methods including case studies interviews surveys and literature reviews the book provides a comprehensive exploration of the changing landscape of the workplace and workforce The initial section of the book looks into the characteristics and impacts of Industry 4.0 with a particular focus on the ramifications of artificial intelligence and other technological advancements It offers actionable recommendations for policymakers organizations and researchers to navigate the associated challenges and leverage the opportunities presented The subsequent section shifts its attention to the transformative effects of the COVID 19 pandemic on the workforce with a spotlight on remote work and alternative work arrangements both during and after the pandemic This section examines the nuanced benefits and challenges inherent in such arrangements and offers strategies for organizations to optimize their implementation for enhanced effectiveness and efficiency The final section of the book is dedicated to exploring the interconnected issues of diversity and immigration which have emerged as significant global concerns It underscores the importance of managerial and human resource practices in fostering diversity equity and inclusion within organizations Additionally this section addresses the escalating trend of brain drain from developing countries and proposes policy interventions aimed at retaining skilled workers and mitigating the associated challenges Corporate Social Responsibility in Rising Economies Nayan Mitra,René Schmidpeter,2021-02-08 Emerging economies arguably have different socio fiscal dynamics compared to developed economies On one side they have the need for corporate interventions in national development on the other hand they do not have enough research to support the agenda In recent times there has been a conscious effort to legislate Corporate Social Responsibility CSR in some of these countries in order to bring about sustainable development Yet it is this legislation which is debated among many others This book provides its readers with a comprehensive interpretation of the various CSR perspectives in emerging economies through academic research and case studies from practice It not only points out the challenges the debates but also the dynamics of implementation and the impact of such CSR spent This book therefore is targeted both towards academics as well as practitioners in an attempt to bring about an active academic industry interface as CSR as a management function is part of dynamic social science
