Global Perspectives on Decolonizing Postgraduate Education Gumbo, Mishack Thiza, Gaotlhobogwe, Michael, Pedzisai, Constantino, Jojo, Zingiswa Mybert Monica, Knaus, Christopher B., 2024-05-13 A deep seated issue persists in postgraduate education one that threatens the relevance of academia in our diverse and evolving world The problem at hand is the Western centric nature of postgraduate education where research paradigms methodologies and theoretical frameworks overwhelmingly reflect a Western worldview This rigid adherence to Western ideologies has left indigenous communities on the periphery of academic discourse denying them the opportunity to engage with their knowledge systems and practices Despite the richness and prevalence of indigenous knowledge the existing educational structure remains a barrier to their inclusion This disconnect is not only an academic concern but also a societal one as it hinders sustainable development and stifles the voices of indigenous scholars and students Global Perspectives on Decolonizing Postgraduate Education serves as a compelling solution to the problem at hand It offers a comprehensive roadmap to decolonize postgraduate education infusing it with indigenous approaches paradigms theories and methods Through critical examination and practical strategies this book empowers academics curriculum designers and postgraduate students to embark on a transformative journey

Juta's Manual of Nursing Sophie Mataniele Mogotlane, 2005 2 Books the role of the nurse as a primary caregiver educator advisor and advocate of patient s rights and suggestions to enhance the patient nurse relationship The book is organised into two parts Part I Cross Systems and Part II The Systems Higher Education in South Africa Eli Bitzer, 2009-10-01 Higher Education in South Africa should be of considerable interest to higher education researchers outside of South Africa as well as within for the general and comparative assessments it makes The South African higher education researchers included within its covers have clearly engaged with research and writing from many parts of the world which they have then applied to make sense of their own condition Malcolm Tight Lancaster University UK A

Teaching and Time Poverty Greg Thompson, Anna Hogan, 2024-12-04 As teacher shortages reach a global crisis point this book explores how time poverty has become a critical factor in the working lives of teachers and school leaders Arguing that we need to move away from framing the problem of teachers work as simply workload this book suggests that understanding time poverty is the first step in moving toward more manageable working lives The book brings together international perspectives on teacher time poverty drawing on theoretical and empirical work to underscore the growing complexity of teachers work and how this impacts job satisfaction stress and feeling that there is never enough time to accomplish all that needs to be done Many policy solutions misdiagnose the problems of teachers work simply suggesting it is an issue of workload The chapters investigate issues of work intensification finding that teachers are not only working longer but also working harder as they manage more complex classrooms and policy mandates This book is essential reading for those interested in understanding how current education policy both produces time poverty and could better identify and respond to the complexities of teachers work Scaling up SDGs Implementation Godwell Nhamo, Gbadebo O. A. Odularu, Vuyo Mjimba, 2020-01-14 This volume challenges global leaders and citizenry to do more in order to resource the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development AfSD and its 17 interwoven Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Starting from the concept we cannot manage what we cannot measure the book presents some cases showing how to draw national level baselines for the domestication and localisation of the SDGs seeking to provide a clear roadmap towards achieving the 2030 AfSD Scaling up SDGs Implementation is targeted at the United Nations national and state governments sub national governments the corporate sector and civil society including higher education institutes labour groups non governmental organisations and youth movements The book is cognizant of these institutions common but differentiated responsibilities and capabilities within their socio political environmental and economic conditions The book presents case studies of how the corporate sector has been scaling up SDGs implementation from the tourism sector insurance to the aviation and agricultural sectors To make sure that no one is left behind the volume includes cases on solutions for pressing environmental and socio economic problems ranging from cooperatives in Brazil to the conservation of springs in Zimbabwe The matter of finding synergies between the climate SDG and the Paris Agreement s Nationally Determined Contributions NDCs is elaborated at length Lastly the book discusses how institutions of higher education remain critical pillars in SDGs scaling up with cases of curriculum re orientation in South Africa to the rolling out of the Women s University in Africa In this context this volume challenges every global citizen and organization to invest every effort into making the implementation of the SDGs a success as we welcome the second four to five year segment down the road to the year 2030 Education and climate change

Samantha Govender, Mncedisi C Maphalala, Dumisani W. Mncube, 2025-06-15 The book highlights the critical yet often overlooked role of education in combating climate change It advocates for a transformative educational framework that integrates social emotional learning and interdisciplinary collaboration Traditional education which focuses solely on factual knowledge is deemed insufficient Instead education should foster empathy provide hands on experiences and encourage active engagement in climate solutions The book outlines various ways education can drive climate action such as raising awareness preparing individuals for green jobs empowering communities and fostering innovation in higher education It highlights the interconnectedness of climate change and education particularly for marginalised populations showing how quality education can enhance both mitigation and adaptation strategies while supporting Sustainable Development Goal SDG 4 and SDG 13 Key chapters discuss successful initiatives such as the Keep it Cool Climate Change Education KIC CCE project in South Africa and offer strategies for integrating climate change education into subjects like Natural Sciences and

Geography Ultimately the book positions education as a strategic tool for promoting sustainable development and building climate resilience New research findings presented in the book connect education to climate change highlighting education as both a tool to address climate issues and a domain affected by these issues The book integrates empirical evidence innovative theories and practical examples to ensure intellectual integrity and academic rigour It introduces a unique framework that emphasises social emotional learning action oriented teaching and interdisciplinary collaboration Case studies such as the KIC CCE initiative in South Africa illustrate these concepts The book critiques traditional models and advocates for transformative approaches to climate education aligning with SDG 4 Quality Education and SDG 13 Climate Action It also highlights the significance of teacher preparedness community empowerment gender equality and innovation providing valuable insights for scholars policymakers and practitioners addressing the climate crisis

Evaluating Indigenous African Tradition for Cultural Reconstruction and Mind Decolonization Durodolu, Oluwole

Olumide, Chisita, Collence T., Marutha, Ngoako Solomon, Familusi, Olumuyiwa Olusesan, 2024-08-22 Evaluating Indigenous African Tradition for Cultural Reconstruction and Mind Decolonization is edited by Oluwole O Durodolu and is an insightful book that challenges the derogatory portrayal of African Traditional Religion ATR and highlights the need for cultural reconstruction and mind decolonization The book explores the derogatory descriptions that have been used to describe ATR and argues that subjecting religion to logical inquiry diminishes the essence of worship and promotes disbelief The book examines the relevance of indigenous African tradition to cultural reconstruction and evaluates the place of African culture in the global context The author argues that upholding the general principle of African Traditional belief which upholds communalism and morality can address problems such as corruption poverty and unemployment in the African continent This book is an essential resource for academics students researchers and anyone interested in understanding the relevance of African Traditional Religion in contemporary times and the need for cultural reconstruction and mind decolonization for the betterment of the African continent and the world at large

Back to the Future Maria Assunção Flores, Ana Amélia Carvalho, Fernando Ilídio Ferreira, Maria Teresa Vilaça, 2013-06-13 Schools and teachers are facing various challenges in a rapidly changing world In such circumstances discussing and sharing concerns of mutual interest regarding policy practice and research is crucial to creating more sophisticated understandings of the various challenges as a first step in the improvement of education While the future should not be imprisoned in the past the past does provide valuable lessons that will undergo new iterations in constructing the future The future will be multi faceted and complex and the different chapters included in this book are intended to provide important contributions from which to build the future of education The different chapters provide readers with international perspectives frameworks and empirical evidence of legacies continuities and changes in educational policy practice and research in teaching teacher education and learning We hope that they inspire the readers to build the future and to change their own professional realities Cheryl J Craig Ph D Professor University of Houston Houston TX USA Secretary ISATT This book metaphorically captures the looking backward to the past pressing forward to the future that typically takes place on celebratory occasions It causes us to pause and remember even as we race toward a time unknown to us In a sense the authors featured in this book serve as tour guides pointing out legacies continuities and changes in teaching and teacher education I strongly urge readers not only to peruse the chapters that follow but to distill them to their essences and to glean what is of value to be learned from them In conclusion the ISATT Executive especially thanks the co editors of this volume who have compiled a superb collection of chapters on a timely and relevant topic
