Werner, 2020-11-11 Stripped examines the ways in which erotic bodies communicate in performance and as cultural figures Focusing on symbols independent of language Maggie M Werner explores the signs and signals of erotic dance audience responses to these codes and how this exchange creates embodied rhetoric Informed by her own ethnographic research conducted in strip clubs and theaters Werner analyzes the movement dress and cosmetic choices of topless dancers and neo burlesque performers Drawing on critical methods of analysis she develops approaches for interpreting embodied erotic rhetoric and the marginal cultural practices that construct women's public erotic bodies She follows these bodies out into the streets into the protest spaces where sex workers and anti rape activists challenge discourses about morality and victimhood and struggle to remake their own identities Throughout Werner showcases the voices of these performers and in the analyses shares her experiences as an audience member interviewer and paying customer The result is a uniquely personal and erudite study that advances conversations about women's agency and erotic performance moving beyond the binary that views the erotic body as either oppressed or empowered Theoretically sophisticated and delightfully intimate Stripped is an important contribution to the study of the rhetoric of the body and to rhetorical and performance studies more broadly

Sex and Death in Eighteenth-Century Literature Jolene Zigarovich, 2013-05-02 This book discusses sex and death in the eighteenth century an era that among other forms produced the Gothic novel commencing the prolific examination of the century's shifting attitudes toward death and uncovering literary moments in which sexuality and death often conjoined By bringing together various viewpoints and historical relations the volume contributes to an emerging field of study and provides new perspectives on the ways in which the century approached an increasingly modern sense of sexuality and mortality It not only provides part of the needed discussion of the relationship between sex death history and eighteenth century culture but is a forum in which the ideas of several well respected critics converge producing a breadth of knowledge and a diversity of perspectives and methodologies previously unseen As the contributors demonstrate eighteenth century anxieties over mortality the body the soul and the corpse inspired many writers of the time to both implicitly and explicitly embed mortality and sexuality within their works By depicting the necrophilic tendencies of libertines and rapacious villains the fetishizing of death and mourning by virtuous heroines or the fantasy of preserving the body these authors demonstrate not only the tragic results of sexual play but the persistent fantasy of necro erotica This book shows that within the eighteenth century culture of profound modern change underworkings of death and mourning are often eroticized that sex is often equated with death as punishment or loss of the self and that the sex death dialectic lies at the discursive center of normative conceptions of gender desire and social power

Vulgar Beauty Mila Zuo, 2022-01-24 In Vulgar Beauty Mila Zuo offers a new theorization of cinematic feminine beauty by showing how mediated encounters with Chinese film and popular culture stars produce feelings of Chineseness To illustrate this Zuo uses the vulgar as an analytic to trace how racial gendered and cultural identity is imagined and produced through affect She frames the vulgar as a characteristic that is experienced through the Chinese concept of weidao or flavor in which bitter salty pungent sweet and sour performances of beauty produce non Western forms of sexualized and racialized femininity Analyzing contemporary film and media ranging from actress Gong Li s post Mao movies of the late 1980s and 1990s to Joan Chen s performance in Twin Peaks to Ali Wong s stand up comedy specials Zuo shows how vulgar beauty disrupts Western and colonial notions of beauty Vulgar beauty then becomes the taste of difference By demonstrating how Chinese feminine beauty becomes a cinematic invention invested in forms of affective racialization Zuo makes a critical reconsideration of aesthetic theory
