ADVOCATE FOR CHANGE

Last week, the Biden administration released their FY 25 Budget. (More about the FY25 and FY24 budget that was just finalized for this year on Page 5.) Although the recently released budget shows the administration trying to hold housing programs at current levels, prospects for actually receiving that funding are a bit more grim. Given congressional budget caps and calls for reduced spending, there is a lot of downward pressure on the administration's budget request.

Despite the affordable housing crisis that is being brought to the forefront of the nation's consciousness, USDA Rural Housing programs do not yet appear to figure into a plan for relief. To help RD's critical and effective programs flourish, they need your attention and advocacy.

Right now, congressional offices nationwide are taking budget requests from their constituents. The National Rural Housing Coalition has put together sample forms that may be used, although some offices require their own to be utilized. The deadlines for the requests vary by office, but are fast approaching.

Please consider investing some time and effort to help save these programs that are so critical to rural America.
