The DNA of Constitutional Justice in Latin America Daniel M. Brinks, Abby Blass, 2018-04-19 In recent times there has been a dramatic change in the nature and scope of constitutional justice systems in the global south New or reformed constitutions have proliferated protecting social economic and political rights While constitutional courts in Latin America have traditionally been used as ways to limit power and preserve the status quo the evidence shows that they are evolving into a functioning part of contemporary politics and a central component of a system of constitutional justice This book lays bare the political roots of this transformation outlining a new way to understand judicial design and the very purpose of constitutional justice Authors Daniel M Brinks and Abby Blass use case studies drawn from nineteen Latin American countries over forty years to reveal the ideas behind the new systems of constitutional justice They show how constitutional designers entrust their hopes and fears to dynamic governance systems in hopes of directing the development of constitutional meaning over time

Intellectual Disability and the Death Penalty Marc J. Tassé Ph.D., John H. Blume JD, MAR, 2017-12-01 Written by two nationally recognized experts this book provides a comprehensive review of the legal and clinical aspects of the death penalty as it relates to intellectual disability First the facts people with intellectual disability may falsely confess to a crime because they want to please the authorities and they are often less able than others to work with lawyers to prepare a defense In addition because of the stigma attached to intellectual disability affected individuals often become adept at hiding it even from their attorney not understanding the condition s importance to the outcome of their case Having explained such harsh realities and presented a comprehensive review of what intellectual disability is the book focuses on the 2002 U S Supreme Court Atkins v Virginia decision granting a death penalty exemption to individuals with intellectual disability It outlines best practice regarding the determination of intellectual disability and discusses qualifications needed for experts in such cases Related issues such as common misconceptions regarding people with intellectual disability race socioeconomic status and the status of foreign nationals as it relates to the death penalty and intellectual disability are discussed as well A must have resource for prosecutors defense lawyers and clinicians providing expert testimony in death penalty cases this book will also prove absorbing reading for anyone concerned about this troubling issue Lumber World Review ,1924 The Lancet ,1848 Free Press and Diplomatic Review ,1855 Saturday Review ,1863 The Pacific Reporter ,1917 African Review ,1900 The Congressional Globe United States.
