Perspectives on Human Suffering Jeff Malpas,Norelle Lickiss,2012-04-23 This volume brings together a range of interdisciplinary perspectives on a topic of central importance but which has otherwise tended to be approached from within just one or another disciplinary framework Most of the essays contained here incorporate some degree of interdisciplinarity in their own approach but the volume nevertheless divides into three main sections Philosophical considerations Humanities approaches Legal medical and therapeutic contexts The volume includes essays by philosophers medical practitioners and researchers historians lawyers literary Classical and Judaic scholars The essays are united by a common concern with the question of the human character of suffering and the demands that suffering and the recognition of suffering make upon us

Climate Change Action and the Responsibility to Protect Ben L. Parr,2023-11-29 This book brings together two important fields in the study of international politics and policy climate change adaptation and mitigation climate action and the Responsibility to Protect R2P Both have attracted strong scholarly attention in each of their respective research silos but there is yet to be a strong research push that explores the relationship between the two Filling this gap Ben L Parr argues that the climate action and the R2P agendas share a common goal to protect vulnerable human populations from large scale harm To substantiate this argument Parr reveals where the historical conceptual and operational parallels exist between the two agendas and where and when researchers and practitioners from both camps might work together in practice to achieve their common goal in the challenging years ahead Notably the book builds on recent efforts by Western governments in the UK US and EU to integrate climate action policies into conflict prevention and response policies To achieve this the volume situates a variety of climate action policies alongside the 46 policy options found in the R2P operational framework commonly known as the R2P toolbox across its prevention reaction and rebuilding phases Climate Change Action and the Responsibility to Protect will be of significant interest to policy orientated students and scholars those working at the academic policy interface in the NGO community as well as those working in government and international organisations
