Seen And Not Seen Confessions Of A Movie Autist:

Seen and Not Seen Jasun Horsley, 2015-01-30 Popular culture mirrors the human soul and it can't lie about the state it is in which is what makes it an essential guide on the quest for self knowledge Seen and Not Seen Confessions of a Movie Autist is a series of autobiographical explorations which slowly uncover the author's secret life to himself Revisiting his former writings on film and deconstructing old texts he engages in a literary dialogue with his past as he struggles to bust open his fantasy life and reach the truth behind it Moving into and through the cultural social and political dimensions of movies the book maps previously undiscovered psychological and spiritual realms of the movie going experience to create an engaging thought provoking utterly original narrative about the essential acts of movie watching writing and self examination

Body Genre David Scott Diffrient, 2023-11-27 In this groundbreaking work author David Scott Diffrient explores largely understudied facets of cinematic horror from the various odors permeating classic and contemporary films to the wetness sliminess and stickiness of these productions which he argues practically scream out for a tactile mode of textural analysis as much as they call for more traditional forms of textual analysis Dating back to Carol Clover's and Linda Williams's pioneering work on horror cinema film scholars have long conceptualized this once disreputable category of cultural production as a body genre However despite the growing recognition that horror serves important biological and social functions in our lives scholars have only scratched the surface of this genre with regard to its affective corporeal and sensorial appeals Diffrient anatomizes horror films in much the same way that a mad scientist might handle the body separating and recombining constitutive parts into a new analytical whole Further he challenges the tendency of scholars to privilege human over nonhuman beings and calls into question ableist assumptions about the centrality to horror films of sight and sound to the near exclusion of other forms of sense experience In addition to examining the role that animals living or dead real or fake play in human centered fictions this volume asks what it means for audiences to consume motion pictures in which actors stunt performers and other creative personnel have put their own bodies and lives at risk for our amusement Historically grounded and theoretically expansive Body Genre Anatomy of the Horror Film moves the study of cinematic horror into previously uncharted waters and breathes life into a subject that not coincidentally is intimately connected to breathing as our most cherished dividing line between life and death

The Vice of Kings Jasun Horsley, 2019-01-22 In today's post truth world we are becoming inundated with fantasy fictions alternate news and grossly oversimplified and wildly exaggerated conspiracy theories that identify cryptocratic power structures ruling our fates But suppose the truth is both stranger than any fiction and more nuanced and disturbing than any theory Suppose it is not conspiracy but complicity that creates our world Beginning as an investigation into the author's childhood inside a closet aristocracy of progressive British entrepreneurs The Vice of Kings uncovers a history both disturbingly personal and shockingly universal By juxtaposing disc jockey Jimmy Savile's secret cultural criminal and political affiliations in the second half of the 20th century with the life and teachings of Aleister Crowley in the first it uncovers an alarming body of evidence that organized child abuse is not only the dark side of occultism but the shadowy secret at the heart of culture both ancient and modern Big Mother Jasun Horsley,2023-10-31 A bold examination of artificial intelligence consciousness technology and the human urge to return to the womb The thesis of Big Mother begins with the premise that our disembodiment as a species is being engineered and that at the same time we are engineering it through technology It proposes that the primary driving force of human civilization is the desire to create through technology a replica of the mother's body and then disappear into it Taking us into the uncanny valley where neurodiversity linguistics consciousness technology demonology Rudolf Steiner Philip K Dick Norman Bates Ted Bundy transgenderism liquid modernity identity politics the surveillance state virtual reality transhumanism Satanism medical totalitarianism and a new world religion of scientism collide Big Mother explores the technologically assembled and technocratically imposed architecture of illusion in which the modern human being is increasingly lost inside and points the way back to our original soul natures I See and Hear Things Others Do Not Travis E. Breeding,2016-04-28 Travis shares how he has visual and audio hallucinations causing him to see and hear things that are not real and that other people do not see or hear Travis shares the daily struggle of living with Schizophrenia and hearing all of these voices and seeing all of these people talking to him Sometimes Travis sees real people that he knows in his hallucinations and this causes him great confusion Travis shares how the voices and visual hallucinations try to get him to harm himself as punishment for having autism The voices are very real to Travis and he tries really hard to fight them off Travis sometimes self harms as the voices are so loud and overwhelming and he must give into them Travis shares how he hears people on television shows like the news talking to him Travis thinks that the news anchors have a special message for him and are trying to tell him that other people are out to get him Travis loses touch with reality often and this is very scary and confusing for him He explains how his brain is much like a movie or video game playing in his mind Travis has a hard time telling what is real or not real when he is experiencing psychosis Travis hopes that by reading this book other people can understand him and others like him more Travis tells about how he has doctors that are not real telling him to perform operations on himself and harm himself Dr Stankaski told Travis that he needed to do surgery on his Thyroid and remove his Thyroid so that he could get rid of some cancer that he had He tried to cut his own Thyroid out and this caused everyone in his family a big scare Travis takes medication every day both morning and night to help him cope with the voices and hallucinations that he has Without the medicine Travis thinks he would be dead A lot of times the voices and hallucinations try and get Travis to self harm and cut They even try to tell him he needs to light himself on fire on occasion Without medicine Travis fears that he would do some of the terrible things to himself the voices tell him to do but when he is on medication he does not seem to believe the voices and hallucinations even though he still has them This is a great book explaining what it can be like for someone to live with Schizophrenia and hear constant voices and see people that others do not hear or see      Rex Cathleen Lewis, 2008-10-28 The inspiring story of Rex a boy who is not only blind and autistic but who also happens to be a musical savant How can an 11 year old boy hear a Mozart fantasy for the first time and play it back note for note perfectly but struggle to navigate the familiar surroundings of his own home Cathleen Lewis says her son Rex's laugh of total abandon is the single most joyous sound anyone could hear but his tortured aversion to touch and sound breaks her heart and makes her wonder what God could have had in mind In this book she shares the mystery of Rex and the highs hopes dreams joy sorrows and faith she has journeyed through with him Endorsements This memoir documents a musical savant in a way we have not seen before allowing us to reconsider the limits we place on people with disabilities Highly recommended for all public libraries and academic libraries with autism and special needs collections Library Journal 11 25 2008 Two of the most extraordinary and uplifting people I have ever known Their story shows the amazingly moving struggle and success that proves love and faith can achieve miracles Jane Seymour actress artist author and entrepreneur The remarkable story of a mother's love and a child's indomitable spirit told in a writer's style that riveted me to the page is singularly the most important work ever written on the relationship between a parent and a child with disability For me as a person who happens to be blind the experience of reading Rex was an eye opener I will never forget Bravo Cathleen Bravo Rex Your work and your lives will forever change the future of disability in America Tom Sullivan author of Adventures in Darkness and Together

Being Seen Anlor Davin, 2016-05-05 Being Seen is a memoir about a woman with autism struggling not only to be seen but to be understood and respected Anlor Davin grew up in a small town on the Western coast of France From earliest childhood she was beset by overwhelming sensory chaos and had trouble navigating the social world Only many years later did she learn that she was autistic Throughout childhood Anlor struggled to hold her world together and in many ways succeeded she became an accomplished young tennis player competing even at the level of the French Open However in addition to her autism a dark history hung over her family a history that she did not fully understand for years to come Without yet having a name for her world shattering condition Anlor headed to a new life in America But she now had to contend with the raw basics of survival in a new culture speaking a new language and without support from her family Through incredible effort Anlor was able to parlay her knowledge of the French language into a job teaching in the notorious South Side neighborhood of Chicago one of America's most violent Anlor married had a child and even dreamed that she might be able to pass as a neurotypical person The grim toll of daily compensating for her autism and pretending to be normal proved too great a challenge and Anlor's life imploded She spiraled downward into a kind of hell losing her marriage and her beloved son Desperate Anlor moved west to California where she found a mysterious and ancient tradition of spiritual practice from the Far East zen Through this profound meditation and community she was able to slowly rebuild her life this time with honest acceptance of the challenge she faced The path took her through extreme emotional and physical duress but at last led to proper medical diagnosis and treatment of her autism Today Anlor works to help people understand her way of being and the value of basic meditative practice in living and thriving with autism
