

Self Introduction Speech Outline Example

The goal is to tell an event that changed your life and the lesson you learned

All speeches should start with a strong statement to draw the audience in

Introduction:

Grabber: A statement that grabs the audience's attention.

Preview: The main points of the speech

Body:

- I. Tell a story or event
 - A. Give details
 - B. Give details so we can see the story unfold
 - C. Draw us into your story

Telling a good story is key!
Make us feel the mood.

Transition: a statement that connects your story to the life lesson

- II. This event changed me (the way I think, what I do, how I act, what I believe) in many ways
 - A. In the future I will.... I will act differently
 - B. I will treat others differently

Conclusion:

Review: Review the story and the lesson briefly

Closure: Give a "life lesson" that can apply to others.
Make the last sentence have a real impact

Everything on the outline must be written as full sentences. You can expect this outline to be about one and a half typed pages long.

You will put more on your outline than you will on your note cards.

The outline is the long version; your note cards will only contain key points

A good closure lets the audience know when to clap. It should be a quote, a memorable statement or something for us to think about.
