Bradley, 2012-06-18 Alan's true story picks up after his parole from Trenton State Prison where he served 27 months of a 3 to 5 year sentence for possession and sale of drugs He thought he had his drug addiction problems beaten He felt that alcohol without drugs would provide him the relief that he needed from his anxiety and depression He started becoming more and more reliant on alcohol as the days passed His social anxiety was so great that he could not participate in conversations in a group context His alcoholic life was a whirlwind of brief sexual encounters and drinking at bars in Greenwich Village His sexual identity was non-existent He had no sexual preference of a female over a male or vice versa Alan was just getting started on his academic career as a free man He had taken his first 4 college courses in prison and was determined to earn at least a bachelor's degree In no time at all he was consuming alcohol before every social gathering whether it was at home at work or on the university campus Alan appeared aloof to many acquaintances but his quiet nature was due to his intense anxiety levels and sporadic depression The years advance and Alan chronicles the huge impact alcoholism has on his life and his urgent attempts to work towards solutions to his inner turmoil As his alcoholism progresses he gets closer and closer to losing everything he's worked and strived for His personal relationships are falling apart His work on the job is suffering and his relationships with co-workers are becoming stressed He needs a solution and he needs it now Sunset Bay Susan
