Carr Sebastiane Bassett s life so far all fourteen years of it while growing up in suburban New Orleans seems very ordinary until he thwarts a horrifying and recurring violation that has plagued his two best friends twin sisters Heather and Sarah Prescott for the entirety of their childhood Unclear as to how he was able to save them but very clear as to the why he can only comprehend one thing he will have to wait for the truth to serve as an explanation If it ever comes That truth his family s historical lineage soaked in the blood of his ancestors through centuries of conflict has and will always be the defining path of his life whether he knows it or not And whether he wants it to or not Years later when circumstance again conspires with tragedy to undermine his belief system and his fortitude Sebastiane is forced to travel to his ancestral homeland It is here that he meets his maternal grandfather a man he knows nothing about Could he be the one with the answers Sebastiane seeks Or is it already too late His mother s father Maurice Renault a man whose own past is shrouded in secrecy death and regret reluctantly chooses to guide his grandson towards the truth of who and what he is If he succeeds further tragedy might be averted But fate has other ideas in store for them both and circumstance can be a fickle thing In the end Sebastiane must come to terms with his past forgive himself for the present and accept his future If he can he just might be able to survive
