Looking Through Philosophy in Black Mabogo Percy More, 2018-12-11 This autobiography is a series of interrelated true life events and decisions taken by a black philosopher that highlight the human drama unfolding in the inferno of the South African apartheid system Mabogo More details what it means to be a black philosopher in an anti black apartheid academic world More's life story traces his emergence in philosophy and his pursuit of a philosophical dream a dream that takes him from his South African black ghetto township to American and British universities and finally to the prestigious Frantz Fanon Lifetime Achievement award His extraordinary philosophical autobiography with an emphasis on African existentialism that takes into account issues of racism identity liberation freedom alienation responsibility and bad faith is supplemented by three key essays from his intellectual career representing the extraordinary contribution he has made to African philosophy and black existentialism

The Formation of Intellectual Capital and Its Ability to Transform Higher Education Institutions and the Knowledge Society Cardoso Espinosa, Edgar Oliver, 2019-06-28 The knowledge society arises from the combination of four interdependent elements the production of knowledge through research its transmission through education its dissemination through information and communication technologies and its exploitation through innovation For this reason higher education institutions HEIs are the main component of the formation of intellectual capital because they are the key element of the knowledge society so it is necessary that they continue to be the main source of the necessary skills that allow the increase of economic competitiveness sustainability and citizen welfare within the framework of quality education and equity The Formation of Intellectual Capital and Its Ability to Transform Higher Education Institutions and the Knowledge Society is an essential research publication that provides systemic research on the formation of intellectual capital in higher education and its impact on the knowledge society Highlighting topics such as educational programs management strategy and educational studies this book is meant for educators educational technologists students researchers professionals and administrators

Debating African Philosophy George Hull, 2018-11-21 In African countries there has been a surge of intellectual interest in foregrounding ideas and thinkers of African origin in philosophy as in other disciplines that have been unjustly ignored or marginalized African scholars have demonstrated that precolonial African cultures generated ideas and arguments which were at once truly philosophical and distinctively African and several contemporary African thinkers are now established figures in the philosophical mainstream Yet despite the universality of its themes relevant contributions from African philosophy have rarely permeated global philosophical debates Critical intellectual excavation has also tended to prioritize precolonial thought overlooking more recent sources of home grown philosophical thinking such as Africa's intellectually rich liberation movements This book demonstrates the potential for constructive interchange between currents of thought from African philosophy and other intellectual currents within philosophy Chapters authored by leading and emerging scholars recover philosophical thinkers and currents of ideas within Africa and about Africa bringing them into dialogue with contemporary mainstream philosophy foreground the relevance of African theorizing to contemporary debates in epistemology philosophy of language moral political philosophy philosophy of race environmental ethics and the metaphysics of disability make new interventions within on going debates in African philosophy consider ways in which philosophy can become epistemically inclusive interrogating the contemporary call for decolonization of philosophy Showing how foregrounding Africa its ideas thinkers and problems can help with the project of renewing and improving the discipline of philosophy worldwide this book will stimulate and challenge everyone with an interest in philosophy and is essential reading for upper level undergraduate students postgraduate students and scholars of African and Africana philosophy

The Faces of Africa: Diversity and Progress, 1972

Cultivating Seeds of Hope Murray Coetzee, Retief Møller, L. D. Hansen, 2015-05-01 This publication is a collection of 40 oral testimonies about Beyers Naud but also about the apartheid era in general and about the role that Christianity played in that period In addition to an abundance of insights on Beyers Naud by those who knew him best it offers perspectives on the movements and entities that Naud associated himself with for example the Christian Institute the South African Council of Churches and the people involved in both Stories unfold of faith and suffering as well as betrayal all against the background of an overtly racist apartheid state and by implication against a capitalist system with class divisions that degraded human beings and denied their human dignity

The Liberal Dilemma in South Africa P. L. van den Berghe, 2022-10-05 Originally published in 1979 The Liberal Dilemma in South Africa discusses the dilemma of how to overthrow an oppressive social order maintained through violence in a non violent manner The contributors to this volume were all established social scientists and academics with extensive experience of living and doing research in South Africa

They analyse various aspects of that dilemma and of the social order which creates it particularly emphasizing the role of students academics and other intellectuals in South African society Shadow Libraries Joe Karaganis, 2018-05-04 How students get the materials they need as opportunities for higher education expand but funding shrinks From the top down Shadow Libraries explores the institutions that shape the provision of educational materials from the formal sector of universities and publishers to the broadly informal ones organized by faculty copy shops student unions and students themselves It looks at the history of policy battles over access to education in the post World War II era and at the narrower versions that have played out in relation to research and textbooks from library policies to book subsidies to more recently the several open publication models that have emerged in the higher education sector From the bottom up Shadow Libraries explores how simply students get the materials they need It maps the ubiquitous practice of photocopying and what are in many cases the more marginal ones of buying books visiting libraries and downloading from unauthorized sources It looks at the informal networks that emerge in many contexts to share materials from face to face student networks to Facebook groups and at the processes that lead to the consolidation of some of those efforts into more organized archives that circulate offline and sometimes online the shadow libraries of the title If Alexandra Elbakyan's Sci Hub is the largest of these efforts to date the more characteristic part of her story is the prologue the personal struggle to participate in global scientific and educational communities and the recourse to a wide array of ad hoc strategies and networks when formal authorized means are lacking If Elbakyan's story has struck a chord it is in part because it brings this contradiction in the academic project into sharp relief universalist in principle and unequal in practice Shadow Libraries is a study of that tension in the digital era Contributors Bal zs Bod Laura Czerniewicz Mirosław Filiciak Mariana Fossatti Jorge Gernetto Eve Gray Evelin Heidel Joe Karaganis Lawrence Liang Pedro Mizukami Jhessica Reia Alek Tarkowski FAITH, HOPE AND DETERMINATION DANIEL J. THERON M.A., Th./Ph.D, 2014-03 Readers will greatly benefit reading this book's forerunner SO MUCH WATER SO LITTLE WOOD for they play in contrasting milieus of maladministration and usually well administered milieus of the financial and other worlds The American Association of University Professors deserves praise for its penetrating light on that book's milieu benefitting employees and other educational institutions for future years Professions have their unique vocabulary and idioms of wisdom as does the investment business Its truth will be summarized Business flourished for me Ruth and I could vacation and travel a more pleasant life Sorrow struck Ruth had developed small brain aneurysms and died within four days Two and a half years later I married Janice Seybolt Morton a widow with two young daughters Life went on And Princeton Seminary Purposely locked in a forget corner Then my phone rang The same student who wanted a copy of my prayer decades ago now Seminary Archivist looked for my file but it was forever assigned to trash I still have your prayer he said He came for three days asking questions and recording my answers He unlocked the corner I had portraits of five deceased outstanding former colleagues at Princeton painted for the Seminary and eventually established endowments for scholarships and distribution of Bibles in South Africa together with liberal contributions for a new library Graciously the Seminary dedicated a lecture room in the new library for me on October 22 2013 This book fulfills my dream of tribute to several of my friends at Pretoria University dedicating their lives to the Kingdom of God They are all long gone now one fifty years ago in 2013 but to all applies the inscription on Johannes Petrus Potgieter's grave stone at his mission station Rivoni THOU THEY WERE DEAD YET SHALL THEY LIVE

Prophecies and Protests Henk van den Heuvel, Mzamo Mangaliso, Lisa van de Bunt, 2006 What can managers around the globe learn from the indigenous African term Ubuntu humane ness For the first time ever African management advocates interpretative scholars and academic skeptics are brought together in a unique book displaying the richness of the debate on Afrocentric management vision This debate is characterized by polarization cultural protest emancipatory aspiration mystification and opportunism Prophecies and Protests offers a broad spectrum of remarkably diverse views from different backgrounds and could be seen as an important step to foster the dialogue between protagonists and critics between practitioners and academics Especially today the central theme of the book is relevant in an era of worldwide cultural diffusion and a longing for authenticity and romanticized histories
