American Foreign Relations Reconsidered Gordon Martel, 2002-11-01 This major new textbook brings together twelve of the leading scholars of U S foreign relations Each contributor provides a clear concise summary of an important period or theme in US diplomatic and strategic affairs since the Spanish American War Michael Hunt and Joan Hoff provide an overview of the traditions behind US policy and a preview of things to come Together the contributors offer a succinct explanation of the controversies and questions that historians have grappled with throughout the twentieth century Students will find these essays a reliable and useful guide to the various schools of thought which have emerged Although each of the scholars is well known for their detailed and original work these essays are new and have been specially commissioned for this book The articles follow the chronological development of the emergence of the United States as a world power but special themes such as the American policy process economic interests relations with the Third World and the dynamics of the nuclear arms race have been singled out for separate treatment American Foreign Relations Reconsidered 1890 1993 represents essential reading for upper level undergraduates studying modern American history The book has been designed and written exclusively to meet the needs of students either as a major course text or as a set of supplementary readings to support other texts

Case Studies on Modern European Economy Tibor Iván Berend, 2013 The last two centuries have been the scene of dramatic change throughout Europe And one of the main causes of these tremendous and spectacular changes was the economy These transformations were achieved by people scientists and political thinkers inventors and entrepreneurs educators skilled and educated workers Who not only invented machines and computers but were able to renew economic and political systems This volume therefore presents a new approach to the period by looking at case studies to understand how these changes came about and the impact they had on modern Europe Ivan Berend presents the spectacular history of modern European economy as a chain of small events actions and the ideas of individuals as the influence of institutions and bold entrepreneurs The essays are grouped into six chapters and discuss the power of entrepreneurship the power of institutions economic regimes and the permanent renewal of capitalism the power of ideas and inventions pioneering companies from the rise of industrial cities to post industrial suburbanization bubbles great depressions and economic cycles All of the single episodes and personal stories offer a cross section of the complex and interrelated history of modern Europe Case Studies on Modern European Economy will be essential reading for students of economic and modern European history

The Rise and Fall of Modern Empires, Volume II Saul Dubow, 2016-12-05 This volume reproduces key historical texts concerning colonial knowledges The use of the adjective colonial indicates that knowledge is shaped by power relationships while the use of the plural form knowledges indicates the emphasis in this collection is on an interplay between different often competing cognitive systems George Balandier s notion of the colonial situation is an organising principle that runs throughout the volume and there are four sub themes language and texts

categorical knowledge the circulation of knowledge and indigenous knowledge The volume is designed to introduce students to a range of important interventions which speak to each other today even if they were not intended to do so when first published An introductory essay links the themes together and explains the significance of the individual articles Coolies of the Empire Ashutosh Kumar, 2017-09-15 This book unfolds the story of the indenture system within the British Empire with India as the mother country of coolies From the Left Bank to the Mainstream Patrick McGuire, Donald McQuarrie, 1994 Chapter 1 Introduction U S Sociology the American Dream and the Specter of Karl Marx Part 2 Part I Social Structure and Processes Chapter 3 Class Structure Class Not Strata It s Not Just Where You Stand But What You Stand For Chapter 4 Social Movements An Argument for Understanding Social Movements as Class Movements Chapter 5 Gender Marxist Theory and the Oppression of Women Chapter 6 Race Classical and Recent Theoretical Developments in the Marxist Analysis of Race and Ethnicity Chapter 7 Social Change and Development A World After Its Own Image The Marxist Paradigm and Theories of Capitalist Development on a World Scale Chapter 8 Labor Labor s Crisis and the Crisis of Labor Studies Toward a Retheorized Sociology of Labor Chapter 9 State and Politics From the King of Prussia to the New World Order Marxist Theories of State and Power Chapter 10 Corporations and the Economy Marxist Scholarship and the Corporate Economy Chapter 11 Education and Knowledge Reading Class Marxist Theories of Education Chapter 12 Medicine and Public Health The Study of the Health Care System The Marxist Critique of a Dominant Paradigm Chapter 13 Religion Marxist Christian Dialogues The Liberation of Theology Chapter 14 Crime and Law Rediscovering Criminology Lessons from the Marxist Tradition Chapter 15 Urban and Regional Development Views of the City Urban and Regional Sociology

Design, Technology and Communication in the British Empire, 1830-1914 Annie Tindley, Andrew Wodehouse, 2016-11-30 This book is an innovative interdisciplinary study of the nature of design as a form of communication within and across Britain and its empire in the long nineteenth century In this period Britain had developed from the world s first industrial nation into the Workshop of the World but how were technological innovations translated and communicated across the imperial territories How were designs turned into reality This book explores these themes incorporating archival case study technologies such as trains sugar manufacture and agricultural technologies Using a four part framework we firstly examine the identification of innovation opportunities and how these translated to engineering specifications The realization of conceptual designs through collaboration and their subsequent manufacture and distribution as finished products are then reviewed Using the authors expertise in the fields of historical and design engineering this study contributes real world case studies to design theory Heritage-Making in Hong Kong Through Culture and Religion Trevor Sofield, Lawal Mohammed Marafa, Fung Mei Sarah Li, Kwo Fung Shek, 2024-08-30 This book centres on religious heritage making where religion as a rich and diverse manifestation of culture and community empowerment lead to the transformation of place Fusing heritage and religion in the novel multidisciplinary concept heri ligion the authors illuminate the dynamics of change inherent in religious oriented heritage making Grounded in empirical evidence this rich concept integrates religious tourism heritage tourism and community based empowerment for sustainable development Applying this unique concept to the once abandoned Hakka village of Yim Tin Tsai the authors analyse the evolving paths of the island from its Hakka origins to a Christian pilgrimage site and more recently to a UNESCO cultural heritage site and thriving tourist destination The authors foreground the important role of the scattered community as a key agent of change in facilitating a sustainable environment of Hong Kong s only salt producing place today A dynamic example of community development and empowerment founded upon religious cultural industrial and natural heritage this book uniquely contributes to tourism and heritage studies human geography cultural sociology Hakka studies Asian studies and anthropology of religion African Sociology Bernard Magubane,2000 The sociological and political writings of Bernard Makhosezwe Magubane on African political history political economy and political philosophy constitute a vital portion of a monumental legacy to later generations by an African intellectual who came to maturity through an historical consciousness that emerged during the 1960s This was a period characterized by the radical contentious philosophies of history African marxism African nationalism and the reactionary ideologies aligned with imperialism and colonialism The essays of Bernard Makhosezwe Magubane stand at a fascinating intersection with the intellectual systems of Frantz Fanon H I E Dhlomo Ngugi wa Thiong o and Amilcar Cabral They are first and foremost what Cabral and Fanon were clamoring for an instrumentarium of the construction of a progressive African ideology or African ideologies What enabled them to realize this remarkable breakthrough is that they are a continuation of the revolutionary thought of Fanon and Cabral Magubane was among the first African academic scholars to have seen the historical significance of Fanon and Cabral respectively in the mid 1960s and in the early 1970s Written in exile during the exile period in South African intellectual and cultural history these essays until recently were not easily historically locatable within the genealogical structure of South African intellectual traditions Undoubtedly this had been due to the political philosophy of apartheid and its ideological manifestations The British Military Revolution of the 19th Century Daniel R. LeClair,2019-10-31 From the Crimean War through the Second Boer War the British Empire sought to solve the Great Gun Question to harness improvements to ordnance small arms explosives and mechanization made possible by the Industrial Revolution The British public played a surprising but overlooked role offering myriad suggestions for improvements to the civilian led War Office Meanwhile politicians and army leaders argued over control of the country s ground forces in a decades long struggle that did not end until reforms of 1904 put the military under the Secretary of State for War Following the debate in the press voters put pressure on both Parliament and the War Office to modernize ordnance and military administration The Great Gun Question was as much about weaponry as about who ultimately controlled military power Drawing on ordnance committee records and contemporary news reports this book fills a gap in the history of British military technology and army modernization prior to World War I Evolutions of Capitalism Catherine Casson,Philipp

Robinson Rössner,2022-04-05 Covering times places and topics that have often been overlooked in the existing economic history literature this collection charts the most comprehensive chronology of capitalism to date Cumulated Index

Transnational Streaming Television Joseph Straubhaar,Swapnil Rai,Melissa Santillana,Silvia Dalben,2025-09-29 Examining the impact of streaming on the global production and flow of television and film this book provides an innovative theoretical framework to conceptualize how asymmetric dynamics of power play out in the era of global streaming This book analyses Netflix and Amazon Prime Video two tech based digital native streamers and compares them to Disney and HBO Max Warner Bros Discovery two legacy Hollywood studios with cable TV and broadcasting operations now pursuing global streaming The book compares their different models of operation and specifically explores how these four streamers particularly Netflix are co producing and commissioning television programs and films in an increasing number of countries It also examines how this trend is creating new opportunities for independent producers and soft power for the producing nations This book further considers the direct algorithmic targeting of individuals by their genre preferences across boundaries of culture language and nation boundaries that previously protected national and regional television markets creating a new flow of data colonialism At a more local level the book also examines some of the national and regional streaming platforms emerging in some of the key players in the Global South Brazil India and Mexico This is essential reading for students researchers and academics interested in media studies global media and global television studies

Resisting Independence Brad A. Jones,2021-03-15 In Resisting Independence Brad A Jones maps the loyal British Atlantic s reaction to the American Revolution Through close study of four important British Atlantic port cities New York

City Kingston Jamaica Halifax Nova Scotia and Glasgow Scotland Jones argues that the revolution helped trigger a new understanding of loyalty to the Crown and empire This compelling account reimagines Loyalism as a shared transatlantic ideology no less committed to ideas of liberty and freedom than the American cause and not limited to the inhabitants of the thirteen American colonies Jones reminds readers that the American Revolution was as much a story of loyalty as it was of rebellion Loyal Britons faced a daunting task to refute an American Patriot cause that sought to dismantle their nation's claim to a free and prosperous Protestant empire For the inhabitants of these four cities rejecting American independence thus required a rethinking of the beliefs and ideals that framed their loyalty to the Crown and previously drew together Britain's vast Atlantic empire Resisting Independence describes the formation and spread of this new transatlantic ideology of Loyalism Loyal subjects in North America and across the Atlantic viewed the American Revolution as a dangerous and violent social rebellion and emerged from twenty years of conflict more devoted to a balanced representative British monarchy and crucially more determined to defend their rights as British subjects In the closing years of the eighteenth century as their former countrymen struggled to build a new nation these loyal Britons remained convinced of the strength and resilience of their nation and empire and their place within it Populism and Feminism in Iran Haideh

Moghissi, 2016-07-27 Women presented the first effective challenge to the Islamic regime and the clerical authority in post-revolutionary Iran Women's activism in support of their legal rights and personal freedom however did not develop into a strong movement against the rising fundamentalism The Iranian socialists did not support women's autonomous organizations The convergence of the Left's populism with Islamic populism and the influence of the Iranian Shiite political culture that promotes male authority and female submission could not reconcile with women's claims to individual rights choice and personal freedom and their struggle for autonomy and self-determination in private or public life Focus on History & Civics 8 (A.Y. 2023-24) Onward I.L.
