Lament and Justice in African American History Timothy Fritz, Trisha Posey, 2023-07-25 For African Americans who have experienced the trauma of colonization displacement enslavement and race based violence lament has long been a form of cultural expression that creates space to process these experiences Lament and Justice in African American History By the Rivers of Babylon explores the theme of lament in African American history from a theological perspective In part one of this edited volume scholars examine historical examples of African Americans use of lament as a framework for engaging both historical memory and social action Part two offers examples of the incorporation of lament as a pedagogical tool in classrooms and other educational settings Readers of this book will appreciate the importance of lament in the African American Christian tradition and will come away challenged to connect their own lament with the pursuit of justice

Journal of African Literature and Culture JALC-ALJ, The Palgrave Handbook of African Politics, Governance and Development Samuel Ojo Olorunfoba, Toyin Falola, 2017-10-10 This handbook constitutes a single collection of well researched articles and essays on African politics governance and development from the pre colonial through colonial to the post colonial eras Over the course of these interconnected periods African politics have evolved with varied experiences across different parts of the continent As politics is embedded both in the economy and the society Africa has witnessed some changes in politics economics demography and its relations with the world in ways that requires in depth analysis This work provides an opportunity for old and new scholars to engage in the universe of the debate around African politics governance and development and will serve as a ready reference material for students researchers policy makers and investors that are concerned with these issues Non-governmental Organizations (NGOs) and Sustainable Development in Sub-Saharan Africa Robert A. Dibie,2008-01-01 Written to provide guidance for civil society organizations and their client groups this book examines the role of NGOs in the development processes on the African continent It raises questions about the influence of funding agencies over the NGOs they support and explores the challenges NGOs face The book argues that increased knowledge and cooperation on all parts is essential to achieve sustainable development This book also concludes that sustainable development activities are not beneficial to every community in Africa Taking into consideration globalization and studies of sub Saharan countries this book concludes that new models of leadership are necessary for the success of Africa and NGOs are a vital part of achieving that development Situated Practices of Strategic Planning Louis Albrechts,Alessandro Balducci,Jean Hillier,2016-07-22

All over the world societies are facing a number of major problems New developments challenges and opportunities cause these issues and yet cases tell us that traditional spatial planning responses and tools are often insufficient to tackle these problems and challenges Situated Practices of Strategic Planning draws together examples from across the globe from France to Australia from Nigeria to the United States as it observes international comparisons of the strategic planning process Many approaches and policies used today fail to capture the dynamics of urban regional transformation and are more concerned with maintaining an existing social order than challenging and transforming it Stewarded by a team of highly regarded and experienced researchers this book gives a synthetic view of the process of change and frames future directions of development It is unique for its combination of analysis of international case studies and reflection on critical nodes and features in strategic planning This volume will be of interest to students who study regional planning academics professional planners and policy makers Debating African Issues William G. Moseley,Kefa M. Otiso,2022-09-14 This debate style

textbook allows students to explore diverse well founded views on controversial African issues pushing them to go beyond superficial interpretations and complicate and ground their understanding of the continent From the positive images in the film Black Panther to the derogatory remarks of former American President Donald Trump the African continent often figures prominently in the collective global imagination This interdisciplinary collection covers 20 enduring and contemporary debates across a broad range of subjects affecting Africa from development and health to agriculture climate change and urbanization Each chapter has a pro and con view penned by a leading expert on the topic in an accessible and engaging style These contrasting views on each issue are framed by an introduction that helps the student contextualize the debate and draw on further resources Moreover they enable readers to deepen their understanding of the topic develop a more nuanced perspective and foster classroom debates This book is an excellent resource for Africa related courses across a range of disciplinary and interdisciplinary fields including African studies anthropology development studies economics environmental studies geography history international studies political science and public health Beyond State Failure and Collapse George Klay Kieh, 2007-01-01 There is a general consensus in the scholarly literature that the post colonial state in Africa has failed Some states Liberia Rwanda Sierra Leone Somalia have collapsed Various arguments have been proffered to explain this dynamics of African state failure and collapse However the literature on state reconstitution is inchoate and minimal This edited volume focuses on prescriptions for reconstituting the post colonial state in Africa Essays on nine African states Burundi the Democratic Republic of the Congo Ethiopia Kenya Nigeria Sierra Leone Somalia South Africa and Uganda are preceded by an introduction to the political economy of the African state Public Policy in Ghana Michael Kpessa-Whyte, James Dzisah, 2023-12-15 This book provides analytical conceptual and practical insights into how public policy processes and outcomes are conceptualized and framed Drawing on Ghanaian experiences but with extensive illustrations from other African countries it showcases issues of commonality and diversity in public policy with analytical insights and real life policy concerns that specifically address how citizens engage with the state and how they think and function as social actors within the socio cultural settings of Africa The book brings public policy to life as a practical and problem solving discipline with examples of how policy actors such as the legislature governance architects the media and the judiciary become arenas for contest Linking public policy to development paradigms governance and responsible citizenship it is important reading for students and scholars of public policy governance and politics in Africa as well as practitioners Marry Me in Africa E. Kofi Agorsah, 2012-09-17 Marry Me in Africa is an invitation to discuss approaches and processes in African marriage ritual As one crucial institution in African culture marriage in its traditional African definition has helped many of the continents cultures maintain a sense of community and identity This book invites especially students and researchers into exchanges on some African marriage traditions and their roles in African societies It concerns those aspects that fascinate me and many other Africans that we believe will interest people in the New World particularly the Caribbean Researchers of the African Diaspora might want to use some of the marriage practices for reconstructing models for analysis and interpretation of the formation and transformation of the African heritage in the Diaspora Marry Me in Africa is particularly useful for scholars not familiar with the different cultural practices among African societies their sources of identity and diversity and the implications of these for understanding African social systems This book will be a useful companion for other scholars who know about some of the cultural practices but are unable to identify exactly their relationship to specific ethnic groups traditional concepts social political economic technological and other practices that have constituted the patterns of cultural behavior among African societies through marriage Individual or local cultural traditions and practices are presented within the context of the general African cultural heritage leading to cross cultural comparison and generalizations The convergence of traditional marriage patterns and continuities in specific aspects of traditional values and behavior of various societies are examined over the common ground sense of community among

Africans that may not be the same today as in the past For this reason this book takes the liberty to discuss present manifestations of a transformed past in the present

Post Colonial Identities Chin Ce, Charles Smith, 2014-04-02 Post Colonial Identities revisits issues regarding the newer literature within the expansive African heritage of diverse regional and national groupings It is poised at substantiating the uniformity of Africa in terms of literary and cultural movements and lending some inter disciplinary insights on the whole body of literature through twentieth century history

Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Africa and the Middle East Jamie Stokes, 2009 Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Africa and the Middle East is a two volume A to Z reference to the history and culture of the peoples of Africa and the Middle East

Out of Africa Pal Ahluwalia, 2010-04-05 In this book Ahluwalia makes a convincing and controversial case that post structuralism has colonial and postcolonial roots This wide ranging discussion ranging across authors as different as Foucault Derrida Fanon Althusser Cixous Bourdieu and Lyotard enables the reader to make connections that have remained unnoticed or been neglected It also brings back into view a history of struggles both political and theoretical that has shaped the landscape of critique in the social sciences and humanities

Tradition, Culture and Development in Africa Ambe J Njoh, 2016-12-05 The fact that Africa continues to lag behind all regions of the world on every indicator of development is hardly contentious However there is fierce debate on why this should be the case despite national and international efforts to reverse this situation While this book does not attempt to answer this question per se it addresses a largely ignored but important issue which might provide some insights into the matter This issue is the link between culture tradition and socio economic development in Africa By weaving a common thread through these concepts this book breaks new ground in the discourse on development It highlights the differences between Euro centric culture which is rooted in capitalist ideology and Protestant ethic and traditional African culture where concepts such as capital accumulation entrepreneurial attitudes and material wealth are not of top priority In doing so it dispels popular myths stereotypes and distortions as well as discounting misleading accounts about major aspects of African culture and traditional practices

Sub-Saharan African Immigrants' Stories of Resilience and Courage Mariam Konate, Fredah Mainah, 2022-12-06 The purpose of this book is to give a voice to nameless and countless stories that represent the personal lived experiences of sub Saharan African immigrants in the United States The authors believe that telling our own stories from our own perspectives is important and empowering because when others tell our stories there are omissions and misrepresentations and a lot of stereotyping The authors hope that the insights gained from the research in this book will be used by immigrant communities academic institutions and governmental agencies in advocating for immigration policies that positively impact the lived experiences of sub Saharan African immigrants and in planning support interventions

Understanding Organization Through Culture and Structure Anne Maydan Nicotera, Marcia J. Clinkscales, Felicia R. Walker, 2003-05-14 Vol examines problems related to task relational orientations concerning organizational structure function within pre dominantly African American organizations For scholars students in org comm management org psych African studies Art and Political Thought in Bole Butake Emmanuel Ngwang, Kenneth Usongo, 2016-09-30 The book Art and Political Thought in Bole Butake through a pluralist critical approach interrogates Butake's major creative works Lake God and Palm Wine Will Flow The Survivors Shoes and Four Men Dance of the Vampires and The Rape of Michelle mainly in terms of their political underpinnings and cultural signification The intention is to place his drama within the socio political matrix of Cameroon and demonstrate the topicality of the issues of governance marginalization and corruption in Cameroon or Africa that Butake consistently foregrounds in his creative works The study opens with an overview of the historical and social milieu that feeds Butake's imagination and the introduction is followed by an interview of the playwright in which he explains his mission as a writer The next two chapters appraise the political symbolism of Butake's plays and chapter five undertakes a comparison of the colonial legacy and the culture of corruption in Butake's Lake God and The Rape of Michelle Women in Butake's imaginative universe play a non negligible role in change They are portrayed as political and social activists in their challenge to autocratic rule This is the leitmotif of chapter six which highlights the contribution of women towards political change in Cameroon In chapters seven and eight the focus is on articulating the cultural signification of Butake's plays in terms of political change Concomitantly these chapters also demonstrate Butake's seamless incorporation of elements of oral literature in his drama as he interpolates proverbs divinations and other elements of orality in his work Chapter nine of the book points out how Butake foregrounds the character traits of his protagonists against the backdrop of traditional Noni religion as well as Christianity Thus the bigotry and belligerence of both the Fon and Father Leo in Lake God for example are projected through a supernatural frame The conclusion appraises the contemporaneity of Butake's drama His oeuvre continues to inspire so many people from disenfranchised groups that see in his drama a path to reclaiming liberties and to critics who are challenged to hone their literary tools in the endeavor to situate his works within the dynamics of politics and culture in Africa
