But when it becomes clear that she and her son are in danger, he charges back into their lives. He'll protect them at any cost. She's the mother of his child after all. Cole may be the most stubborn and downright grumpy man Kelsey has ever met, but there's no denying she feels safer now that he's here. She knows gruff, battle-hardened Cole won't allow them to be hurt, but the longer he stays with them, forced together in the home that should've been theirs, the more she fears for her patched-together heart.
