

On 12 September 1978, the Government of the Republic of China (Taiwan) issued a statement regarding the alleged human rights violations in the People's Republic of China (PRC). The statement, titled "The Government of the Republic of China (Taiwan) Statement on Human Rights in the People's Republic of China," was issued in the form of a press release. It stated that the Government of the Republic of China (Taiwan) was deeply concerned about the human rights situation in the PRC and that it had been actively working to improve the situation. The statement also mentioned that the Government of the Republic of China (Taiwan) had been providing humanitarian aid to the people of the PRC and that it had been working to promote human rights education in the PRC. The statement was signed by the President of the Republic of China (Taiwan) and the Vice President of the Republic of China (Taiwan).
