Leading Beyond Sustainability Clive Wilson,2024-09-27 The 2020s present a decade of unprecedented disruption We have now reached a point where people are overwhelmed and numb to the ever present news of threat after threat and challenge after challenge It s time for leaders to tell a different story of six powerful aspirations connection vitality peace abundance opportunity and wisdom This is a vision beyond sustainability to inspire organisations and people to bring the best of who they are into service of the brighter future that is already emerging Alongside the obvious disruptive challenges of climate change wars and the pandemic technology has evolved at a blistering pace Through technological advances in five sectors energy transport materials food and manufacturing we are already transforming the world as we know it The book seeks to give readers the confidence that there is real hope for a brighter future for our world using these developments and other innovations. The text is supported by inspiring case studies of people and organisations who are already doing amazing things. Crucially, the book highlights the many ways that leaders and organisations can contribute to a better world and encourages dialogue between organisations and people who might not naturally connect. It describes 12 archetypes in organisations that must collaborate in teams to deliver solutions. It also emphasises the need for wise leadership and conscious alignment of everyone to our brighter future. A manifesto for positive change, this is the perfect book to help turn the UN Sustainable Development Goals into action and to envisage a positive future for leaders at every level in organisations.

Rescue Me from Myself Dr. Ojo Joseph Bamidele, 2020-08-06

Who am I? What can I know? What ought I do? We needed to work through the most important spiritual lessons which all of us must learn: passion, betrayal and forgiveness. There is always a wilderness in us. It's a very necessary, crucial and divine detour to bring us home to ourselves after a lifetime of running away. Many of us always want to fast-track our lives' journey. Just because you failed at a relationship doesn't mean you are a failure. We have to pass through the wilderness before getting to the promise land. There are many stumbling objects on the path. Wilderness is a bleak, numbing word that instantly calls to mind a feeling of hopelessness, nothingness, barrenness and most of all, a sense of powerlessness. There's a reason that the biblical expression, the voice of the one crying in the wilderness, has come to mean abject abandonment. You can wail and gnash your teeth all you want, but in the Wilderness, no one hears your heart tearing asunder except God, who presumably sent you there. Ironically, according to ancient legend, the word Wilderness didn't conjure up a place of punishment, but rather a place of learning, spiritual growth, understanding, healing and accomplishment. It referred to a wellspring of Divine energy in the guise of despair, hardship and pain. Your experience in the Wilderness was designed to prepare or propel you toward your destiny. Or pry you loose from whatever was keeping you from it. Still, one does not enthusiastically sign up for the Wilderness cure the way we might for a restorative spell at Mount Everest or a confidence-building week in a retreat camp. Instead, we are usually thrust into the Wilderness by horrific circumstances that not only try our souls but seriously call into question our belief in God. In life, the smarter you are, the more things can scare you, but to fear is one thing and to let fear grab you around the tail and swing you around is another. What difference does it make if the things you're scared of are real or not? You need to navigate your way through fear to achieve your big dream. The Israelites of the Old Testament were lucky. They wandered in the wilderness for forty years. Most of us stumble through trial, terror and triumphs of life's terrain a lot longer, usually until we're ready, willing and able to come face-to-face with the truth about ourselves. But we don't know we're worthy of success until we set out in search of the Promise Land. In this book, you will also get the insight to know when to say no. Live to fight another day. Success is progress. Dream big. Go the extra mile. Who is your role model? The down-fall of a man. Life is a risk. Give me another chance. Don't give up. Pride goes before a fall. Courage to excel. Dwelling in Possibilities. Making a difference in a chaotic

World and many more Get your copy now you will be glad you did There are moments that have made a difference in the trajectory of your life the successes and failure that have define you the loves and hates gains and losses promises and pain that have bound you the risks and ruins tumults and triumphs that set you free This is a unique book indeed Starlight Organization Hon George Adioni Sinclair says learn how to say I am sorry even if you are right If this message offends you in one way or the other I am sorry My apologies Reverend George Blessing The Happiness Experiment Carl B.
