We Are Not Ourselves Matthew Thomas:

We Are Not Ourselves Matthew Thomas, 2014-08-19 Destined to be a classic this powerfully moving Chad Harbach The Art of Fielding multigenerational debut novel of an Irish American family is nothing short of a masterwork Joshua Ferris Then We Came to the End Born in 1941 Eileen Tumulty is raised by her Irish immigrant parents in Woodside Queens in an apartment where the mood swings between heartbreak and hilarity depending on whether guests are over and how much alcohol has been consumed When Eileen meets Ed Leary a scientist whose bearing is nothing like those of the men she grew up with she thinks she's found the perfect partner to deliver her to the cosmopolitan world she longs to inhabit They marry and Eileen quickly discovers Ed doesn't aspire to the same ever bigger stakes in the American Dream Eileen encourages her husband to want more a better job better friends a better house but as years pass it becomes clear that his growing reluctance is part of a deeper psychological shift An inescapable darkness enters their lives and Eileen and Ed and their son Connell try desperately to hold together a semblance of the reality they have known and to preserve against long odds an idea they have cherished of the future Through the Learys novelist Matthew Thomas charts the story of the American Century particularly the promise of domestic bliss and economic prosperity that captured hearts and minds after WWII The result is a riveting and affecting work of art one that reminds us that life is more than a tally of victories and defeats that we live to love and be loved and that we should tell each other so before the moment slips away Epic in scope heroic in character masterful in prose We Are Not Ourselves heralds the arrival of a major new talent in contemporary fiction

We are Not Ourselves Matthew Thomas, 2014 We Are Not Ourselves Matthew Thomas, 2014-08-19 The instant New York Times bestseller The Washington Post calls a stunning superbly rendered novel and Entertainment Weekly describes as a gripping family saga maybe the best since The Corrections As an Irish immigrant in Queens in 1941 Eileen has dreamed of more in her life but when she and her family seem to be moving closer to that dream devastation hits and they must learn how to not only hold on to their reality but to each other Born in 1941 Eileen Tumulty is raised by her Irish immigrant parents in Woodside Queens in an apartment where the mood swings between heartbreak and hilarity depending on how much alcohol has been consumed From an early age Eileen wished that she lived somewhere else She sets her sights on upper class Bronxville New York and an American Dream is born Driven by this longing Eileen places her stock and love in Ed Leary a handsome young scientist and with him begins a family Over the years Eileen encourages her husband to want more a better job better friends a better house It slowly becomes clear that his growing reluctance is part of a deeper more incomprehensible psychological shift An inescapable darkness enters their lives and Eileen and Ed and their son Connell try desperately to hold together a semblance of the reality they have known and to preserve against long odds an idea they have cherished of the future Described by The New York Times Book Review as A long gorgeous epic full of love and caring one of the best novels you'll read this year We Are Not Ourselves is a testament to our greatest desires and our greatest frailties

Through the lives of these characters Thomas charts the story of the American Century The result is stunning The joys of this book are the joys of any classic work of literature for that is what this is destined to become superbly rendered small moments that capture both an individual life and the universality of that person s experience The Washington Post Late Work Joan Frank,2022-10-15 Useful for writers at any stage of development Late Work offers a seasoned artist s thinking through the exploration of issues paradoxes and crises of faith The Course of Love Alain de Botton,2016-06-14 An engrossing tale that provides plenty of food for thought People Best New Books pick this playful wise and profoundly moving second novel from the internationally bestselling author of How Proust Can Change Your Life tracks the beautifully complicated arc of a romantic partnership We all know the headiness and excitement of the early days of love But what comes after In Edinburgh a couple Rabih and Kirsten fall in love They get married they have children but no long term relationship is as simple as happily ever after The Course of Love explores what happens after the birth of love what it takes to maintain and what happens to our original ideals under the pressures of an average existence We see along with Rabih and Kirsten the first flush of infatuation the effortlessness of falling into romantic love and the course of life thereafter Interwoven with their story and its challenges is an overlay of philosophy an annotation and a guide to what we are reading As The New York Times says The Course of Love is a return to the form that made Mr de Botton s name in the mid 1990s love is the subject best suited to his obsessive aphorizing and in this novel he again shows off his ability to pin our hopes methods and insecurities to the page This is a Romantic novel in the true sense one interested in exploring how love can survive and thrive in the long term The result is a sensory experience fictional philosophical psychological that urges us to identify deeply with these characters and to reflect on his and her own experiences in love Fresh visceral and utterly compelling The Course of Love is a provocative and life affirming novel for everyone who believes in love There s no writer alive like de Botton and his latest ambitious undertaking is as enlightening and humanizing as his previous works Chicago Tribune The Gypsy Moth Summer Julia Fierro,2017-06-06 Returning to her family s grand estate off coastal Long Island Leslie is confronted by a damaging gypsy moth invasion prejudices toward her biracial family and her son s romance with a local drama queen a situation that is overshadowed by a suspicious outbreak of deadly cancers What We Sacrifice for Magic Andrea Jo DeWerd,2024-09-24 Perfect for fans of Practical Magic and The Lager Queen of Minnesota a coming of age novel following three generations of witches in the 1960s this enchanting and heartwarming debut explores the importance of family and the delight and heartbreak of discovering who you truly are It s 1968 and the Watry Ridder family is feared and respected in equal measure The local farmers seek out their water charms and the teenagers their love spells The family s charms and spells passed down through generations of witches descending from the Black Forest have long served the small town of Friedrich Minnesota Eldest daughter Elisabeth has just graduated high school she is expected to hone her supernatural abilities to take over for her grandmother the indomitable Magda She s also expected to marry her high school sweetheart and live the rest of her life in Friedrich But all she can ask is why her Why is her path set in stone and what else might be out there for her She soon discovers that magic isn't the only thing inherited in her family That magic also comes with a great price and a big family secret The more she digs the more questions she has and the less she trusts the grandmother she thought she knew Who is Elisabeth without her family She must ultimately decide what she's willing to sacrifice for her family for their secrets and their magic or risk it all to pave her own way Navigating the bittersweet tension between self discovery and living up to familial expectations What We Sacrifice for Magic is a touching look at coming into one's own

The Second Coming Garth Risk Hallberg, 2025-09-16 From the New York Times bestselling author of City on Fire an intimate epic that plunges us deep into the lives of a teenage girl and her father as they navigate love grief betrayal and redemption Beautiful and daring Nathan Hill author of Wellness Breathtaking Christina Baker Kline author of Orphan Train When thirteen year old Jolie Aspern drops her phone onto the subway tracks in 2011 her estranged dad Ethan seems like the furthest thing from her mind A convicted felon and recovering addict Ethan has long struggled to see beyond himself But then a call from New York makes him fear his daughter's in deeper trouble than anyone realizes And believing he's the only one who can save her he decides to return home So begins the journey that will in time push Jolie and Ethan child and adult apart and together different yet the same out past their depths Full of yearning and revelation The Second Coming is at once an incandescent feat of storytelling and an exploration of an enduring mystery Can the people we love ever really change

Alzheimer's Disease in Contemporary U.S. Fiction Cristina Garrigós, 2021-07-28 This volume seeks to bring readers to a deeper understanding of contemporary cultural and social configurations of Alzheimer's disease by analyzing 21st century U.S. novels in which the disease plays a key narrative role Via analysis of selected works Garrigós considers how the erasure of memory in a person with Alzheimer's affects our idea of the identity of that person and their sense of belonging to a group Starting out from three different types of memory individual social and cultural the study focuses on the narrative strategies that authors use to configure how the disease is perceived and represented This study is significant not only because of what the texts reveal about those with Alzheimer's but also for what they say about us about the authors and readers who are producing and consuming these texts about how we see this disease and what our attitudes to it say about contemporary U.S. society
