We Still Kill The Old Way:

Revolution in 35mm Andrew Nette, Samm Deighan, 2024-09-24 Revolution in 35mm Political Violence and Resistance in Cinema from the Arthouse to the Grindhouse 1960-1990 examines how political violence and resistance was represented in arthouse and cult films from 1960 to 1990. This historical period spans the Algerian war of independence and the early wave of post colonial struggles that reshaped the Global South through the collapse of Soviet Communism in the late 80s. It focuses on films related to the rise of protest movements by students, workers, and leftist groups, as well as broader countercultural movements like Black Power, the rise of feminism, and so on. The book also includes films that explore the splinter groups that engaged in violent urban guerilla struggles throughout the 1970s and 1980s, as the promise of widespread radical social transformation failed to materialize. It covers the Weathermen, the Black Liberation Army, and the Symbionese Liberation Army in the United States, the Red Army Faction in West Germany, and Japan and Italy's Red Brigades. Many of these movements were deeply connected with and expressed their values through art, literature, popular culture, and of course, cinema. Twelve authors, including academics and well-known film critics, deliver a diverse examination of how filmmakers around the world reacted to the political violence and resistance movements of the period and how this was expressed on screen. This includes looking at the financing, distribution, and screening of these films, audience and critical reaction, the attempted censorship or suppression of much of this work, and how directors and producers eluded these restrictions. Including over two hundred illustrations, the book examines filmmaking movements like the French, Japanese, German, and Yugoslavian New Waves, subgenres like spaghetti westerns, Italian poliziotteschi, Blaxploitation, and mondo movies, and films that reflect the values of specific movements like feminists, Vietnam War protesters, and Black militants. The work of influential and well-known political filmmakers such as Costa Gavras, Gillo Pontecorvo, and Glauber Rocha is examined side by side with grindhouse cinema and lesser-known titles by a host of all but forgotten filmmakers, including many from the Global South that are deserving of rediscovery.

A History of Italian Cinema Peter Bondanella, Federico Pacchioni, 2017-10-19 A History of Italian Cinema 2nd edition is the much anticipated update from the author of the bestselling Italian Cinema which has been published in four landmark editions and will celebrate its 35th anniversary in 2018. Building upon decades of research, Peter Bondanella and Federico Pacchioni reorganize the current History in order to keep the book fresh and responsive not only to the actual films being created in Italy in the twenty-first century but also to the rapidly changing priorities of Italian film studies and film scholars. The new edition brings the definitive history of the subject from the birth of cinema to the present day, up to date with a revised filmography as well as more focused attention on the melodrama, the crime film, and the historical drama. The book is expanded to include a new generation of directors as well as to highlight themes such as gender issues, immigration, and media politics. Accessible, comprehensive, and heavily illustrated throughout, this is an essential Proibito! Roberto Curti, 2023-09-20 From its birth in 1913 to its abolition in 2021 film censorship marked the history of Italian cinema and its evolution mirrored the social political and cultural travail of the country During the Fascist regime and in the postwar period censorship was a powerful political tool in the hands of the ruling party many films were banned or severely cut By the end of the 1960s censors had to cope with the changing morals and the widespread diffusion of sexuality in popular culture which led to the boom of hardcore pornography With the crisis of the national industry and the growing influence of television censorship gradually changed its focus and targets The book analyzes Italian film censorship from its early days to the present discussing the most controversial cases and protagonists These include such notorious works as Last Tango in Paris and Salo or the 120 Days of Sodom and groundbreaking filmmakers such as Luchino Visconti Federico Fellini and Pier Paolo Pasolini who pushed the limits of what was acceptable on screen causing scandal and public debate

The Gorgon's Gaze Paul Coates, 1991-04-26 This interdisciplinary study of recurrent themes in German cinema as it has developed since the early twentieth century focuses on pertinent films of the pre and post World War II eras The author explores the nature of expressionism which is generally agreed to have ended with the advent of sound and its persistence in the styles of such modern masters of film noir as Orson Welles and Ingmar Bergman In considering the possibility of homologies between the necessary silence of pre sound cinema and the widespread modernist aspiration to an aesthetic of silence Coates relates theories of the sublime the uncanny and the monstrous to his subject He also reflects upon problems of representability and the morality of representation of events that took place during the Nazi era

Hischak,2015-04-16 For more than a century original music has been composed for the cinema From the early days when live music accompanied silent films to the present in which a composer can draw upon a full orchestra or a lone synthesizer to embody a composition music has been an integral element of most films By the late 1930s movie studios had established music departments and some of the greatest names in film music emerged during Hollywood's Golden Age including Alfred Newman Max Steiner Dimitri Tiomkin and Bernard Herrmann Over the decades other creators of screen music offered additional memorable scores and some composers such as Henry Mancini Randy Newman and John Williams have become household names The Encyclopedia of Film Composers features entries on more than 250 movie composers from around the world It not only provides facts about these artists but also explains what makes each composer notable and discusses his or her music in detail Each entry includes Biographical material Important dates Career highlights Analysis of the composer's musical style Complete list of movie credits This book brings recognition to the many men and women who have written music for movies over the past one hundred years In addition to composers from the United States and Great Britain artists from dozens of other countries are also represented A rich resource of movie music history The Encyclopedia of Film Composers will be of interest to fans of cinema in general as well as those who want to learn more about the many talented individuals who have created memorable scores Darkness Calls Sue Short,2019-09-14 This book examines the contrasting forms neo noir has taken on screen asking what prompts our continued interest in tales of criminality and moral uncertainty Neo noir plots are both familiar and diverse found in a host of media formats today and now span the globe Yet despite its apparent prevalence and increased academic attention many core questions remain unanswered What has propelled noir's appeal half a century on after its supposed decline. What has led film makers and series creators to rework given tropes? What debates continue to divide critics? And why are we as viewers so drawn to stories that often show us at our worst? Referencing a range of films and series citing critical work in the field while also challenging many of the assumptions made, this book sets out to advance our understanding of a subject that has fascinated audiences and academics alike. Theories relating to gender identity and neo noir's tricky generic status are discussed together with an evaluation of differing comic inflections and socio-political concerns concluding that although neo noir is capable of being both progressive and reactionary it also mobilises potentially radical questions about who we are and what we might be capable of. Danny Dyer: East End Boy Joe Allan, 2014-09-25 Danny Dyer The Unauthorized Biography tells the full up to date story of TV's tough guy. From his early years in London's Canning Town to his first breaks as a teen actor to his fascinating new role on EastEnders. The A to Z of Italian Cinema Gino Moliterno, 2009-10-12 The Italian cinema is regarded as one of the great pillars of world cinema. Films like Ladri di biciclette 1948, La dolce vita 1960 and Nuovo cinema Paradiso 1988 attracted unprecedented international acclaim and a reputation which only continues to grow. Italian cinema has produced such acting legends as Sophia Loren and Roberto Benigni as well as world renowned filmmakers like Federico Fellini, Sergio Leone, Mario Bava, Dario Argento and Lina Wertmüller the first woman to ever be nominated for the Best Director award.
