North Conway,2019-07-01 The SS Portland was a solid and luxurious ship and its loss in 1898 in a violent storm with some 200 people aboard was later remembered as New England s Titanic The Portland was one of New England s largest and most luxurious paddle steamers and after nine years solid performance she had earned a reputation as a safe and dependable vessel In November 1898 a perfect storm formed off the New England coast Conditions would produce a blizzard with 100 miles per hour winds and 60 foot waves that pummeled the coast At the time there was no radio communication between ships and shore no sonar to navigate by and no vastly sophisticated weather forecasting capacity The luxurious SS Portland a sidewheel steamer furnished with chandeliers red velvet carpets and fine china was carrying more than 200 passengers from Boston to Portland Maine over Thanksgiving weekend when it ran headlong into a monstrous violent gale off Cade Cod It was never seen again All passengers and crew were lost at sea More than half the crew on board were African Americans from Portland Their deaths decimated the Maine African American community Before the storm abated it became one of the worst ever recorded in New England waters The storm now known as The Portland Gale killed 400 people along the coast and sent more than 200 ships to the bottom including the doomed Portland To this day it is not known exactly how many passengers were aboard or even who many of them were The only passenger list was aboard the vessel As a result of this tragedy ships would thereafter leave a passenger manifest ashore The disaster has been blamed on the hubris of the captain of the Portland Hollis Blanchard who decided to leave the safety of Boston Harbor despite knowing that a severe storm was hurtling up the coast Blanchard a long time mariner had been passed over for a promotion for a younger captain He decided he wanted to show the steamship company that they had made a mistake by getting the Portland safely into port ahead of the imminent storm Author J North Conway has created here a personal visceral account of the sinking and the times and the people involved with stories to bring readers onto the Portland that day Here is Eben Heuston the chief steward onboard the ill fated ship More than half of the crew of the ship were African Americans Hueston was an African American who lived in the Portland community of Munjoy Hill and was a member of the Abyssinian Church After the sinking of the Portland the African American community disappeared and the church closed And Emily Cobba nineteen year old singer from Portland s First Parish Church who was scheduled to give her first recital at the church on that Sunday And Hope Thomas who came to Boston to shop for Christmas and because she decided to exchange some shoes she purchased missed taking the ill fated Portland Because of the lack of communications from Maine to Cape Cod it was days before anyone was able to get word about the fate of the ship or survivors Author J North Conway has painstakingly recreated the events using first hand sources and testimonies to weave a dramatic can t put it down narrative in the tradition of Erik Larson s Isaac s Storm and Walter Lord senduring classic A Night to Remember He brings the tragedy to life with contemporaneous accounts the Coast Guard
