Impress Them on Your Children Charleton D. King,2023-12-19 It was a slow realization over many years that I had been living a divided life as a Christian teaching in the public school system I had no problem teaching at a public school myself but I simultaneously refused to send my children to the same school because I didn t want them exposed to what was taught there The inconsistency was clear in the minds of others when they found out that I homeschooled my children but it took years for it to become clear to me After a decade in teaching I felt convicted to resign This book recounts the several moments and realizations that led up to my decision to leave public education

It'S Like Riding a Bike David M. Schmittou,2017-03-22 Since the enactment of No Child Left Behind and the more recent Every Child Succeeds Act you would think student achievement would be on the rise But SAT scores are dipping college and career readiness are at all time lows and parents are wondering whats gone wrong David M Schmittou Ed D a career educator seeks to find out why by asking a simple question Why do we have such a difficult time remembering what we learned in school and yet we never forget how to ride a bikesomething we learned when we were five or six Riding a bicycle requires fine motor controls concentration dexterity and balance but children can master the skill even before they enter school Students can learn academic subjects in the same fashion but it will require us to take a radical new approach to educationone that requires learners to enter real world settings instead of classrooms separated from reality We can no longer afford to spend millions of dollars without seeing results Its time to bolster education for all by mastering the ideas and principles in Its Like Riding a Bike
