We Remember the Blitz Frank Shaw, Joan Shaw, 2012-10-11 I went to the public baths and after I undressed I could hear someone whistling I looked round to see if I could see anybody about but I couldn't so I got into the bath and lay back to relax As soon as I did of course I looked up and saw a man putting in the glass windows that had been blown out the night before Joan Adams Lichfield On the night of 7 September 1940 bombs rained down on the defenceless and unprepared population of London for nine long hours In November raids spread to the rest of the country starting in Coventry and taking in everywhere from Portsmouth Cardiff Belfast and Hull During the nine months of the Blitz thousands of people were killed and injured and thousands of buildings and homes destroyed But with stoicism and humour life went on We Remember the Blitz is packed with vivid recollections from this important time in British history Waking up in a damp shelter to the sound of bombing Coming out of a cinema to discover that fires made night as bright as day And worst of all the shock of seeing individuals and whole families killed in an instant We hear from many who were there to pick up the pieces ARP wardens firemen even the bakers who would return to work under tarpaulin to ensure their neighbours had their daily loaf Filled with moving but often funny memories We Remember the Blitz is a celebration of the British spirit and clearly shows that the battle for Britain was won by the many

We Remember Dunkirk Frank Shaw, Joan Shaw, 2013-11-21 Yes we were scared It could be seen on the faces of the men No food didn't help We stopped to suck pebbles during the day as our tongues began to swell through lack of water We had an order come through to us one day Every man for himself And then the soldiers Belgian French and British were side by side in silent soddy ranks in columns zig zagged across the beaches I still believe this was done to minimise casualties We had to wade out up to our necks in water to get onto a boat ducking under the water when the Germans tried to mow us down Eventually I managed to grab a chain hanging off a Naval motorboat and it was fully loaded but I hung on Arthur Thomas Gunn Walsall Between 27 May and 4 June 1940 over 900 vessels rescued 338 226 people trapped at Dunkirk Cut off by the advancing German Army hundreds of thousands of Allied troops gathered on the beaches exhausted hungry and scarred by war Operation Dynamo saw British destroyers and the hundreds of little ships bring these men safely back to England where they were welcomed back by the locals with tea and sandwiches and hailed as heroes In We Remember Dunkirk we hear stories from the soldiers who made the perilous journey to Dunkirk and came under constant attack from Nazi aircraft as they boarded British ships and attempted to cross the Channel But we also hear from the nurses who tended the many returning wounded the young women who along with the rest of their communities rallied to make food and gather whatever they could to give the soldiers and what it was like witnessing all this through a child's eyes Above all we see how the solidarity of the British people gave rise to the unfailing Dunkirk Spirit

Premiering with a spring schedule and an abundance of talent that included top rookies and National Football League veterans, the USFL gained national attention with broadcast and cable television contracts, controversial player signings, ownership battles, and an unsuccessful billion-dollar lawsuit against the NFL. The USFL folded after four years yet represented the last major challenge to America's big four sports leagues: the NFL, the National Basketball Association, the National Hockey League, and Major League Baseball. Based upon extensive research and interviews with owners, coaches, players, and administrators, this book chronicles the league's formation, its three seasons of play, and its long-term effects on pro sports. Doodlebugs, Gas Masks & Gum Christina Rex, 2008-11-15 Wartime Britain through the eyes of children who were there. What It Means to Be a Buckeye Jeff Snook, 2012-08 Examining a simple question: What is so special about Ohio State football?
