Community Brad House,2011-09-07 Community within the church today is hemorrhaging Attention spans are dwindling noise levels are increasing and we can t seem to find time for real relationships

The answer to such social fragmentation can be found in small groups and yet the majority of small groups at least in the traditional sense are often not the intentional transformational community we really want and need. Somehow we need to get our groups off life support and into authentic community. Pastor Brad House helps us to re-imagine what gospel-centered community looks like and shares from his experience leading and reproducing healthy small groups. With wisdom and candor, House challenges us to think carefully about our own groups and to take steps toward cultivating communities that are able to glorify Jesus, bless one another, and participate in the mission of God. The Department Chair Christopher J.

Jochum, 2021-12-15 While serving as a department chair can be one of the most rewarding leadership positions in higher education, it is also one for which most people are not adequately prepared. Given the significance of this position and its impact on students, faculty, and staff, this book provides a practical approach to leadership based upon the notion that the best way to improve organizations and the lives of those within them is by improving their leaders. As a result, readers will first be challenged to identify their true intentions for leading as a department chair, which means acknowledging that what makes one a successful faculty member does not by itself equate to being an effective leader. In addition, readers will learn how to establish a healthy culture, the importance of hiring, how to courageously address conflict, the value of mentoring, and developing others, along with the significance of effectively leading students. In addition, readers will learn about crisis leadership and how to effectively assess if and when it's time to move on from the chair position. Ten Steps Toward Christ
